What is Warmth?

Warmth is an unstable quality. According to Noah Webster, a "warm" person is one who is zealous, excitable, passionate, animated, or hot. It is the first of these qualities which makes you remember some acquaintances more than others. It is an affluent thing, part of a person's unconsious behavior. At one time or another each person has experienced warmth. It could be during a game, when your team has finally managed to tie the score, or even go ahead. It could be contact with a teacher; one who has finally gotten her point across, and is really excited about doing so. It could be how you feel after finally accomplishing something you have set out to do.

How Can Warmth Be Applied To North?

Warmth is a quality possessed by the students, faculty, and administration at North High. During the past year, the school spirit of North has been boosted higher than ever before. Why? Maybe it is a winning team. Maybe it is because the people at North have some strange quality: a quality of zeal, exuberance, excitement, or of animation. Maybe it is because the people at North are warm.

SCHOOL BOARD SETS POLICY

The school year 1967-68 saw a major change from last year, as far as the board was concerned, with the retirement of President Frank Haze Burch, and the subsequent appointment of Mr. John Fels, an attorney, to the board. The seven-member board of education had Dr. Howard C. Seymour, Superintendent, as its head.

Included in the board's responsibilities were determining official school policy for schools in the Phoenix Union High School System, the hiring of system personnel, and maintaining good public relations with the taxpayers. Bi-weekly meetings of the board were open to the public.

George Berger, Associate Principal

Mr. George Berger has been Associate Principal at North for four years. Mr. Berger studied at NAU and Colombia University, and received his BA and MA at NAU. He indirectly sponsors all campus clubs and activities.

Administrative Assistants

Dr. James Carter headed North's administration staff as principal. Mr. George Berger was Associate Principal. Other members of his staff were Mr. Cardon and Miss McCormick. Mr. Berger handled registration and attendance, Mr. Cardon took care of boys' problems and sponsored various school clubs and activities. Miss McCormick was in charge of solving girls' disciplinary problems. She also had the responsibility of setting up dates and locations for various school activities.

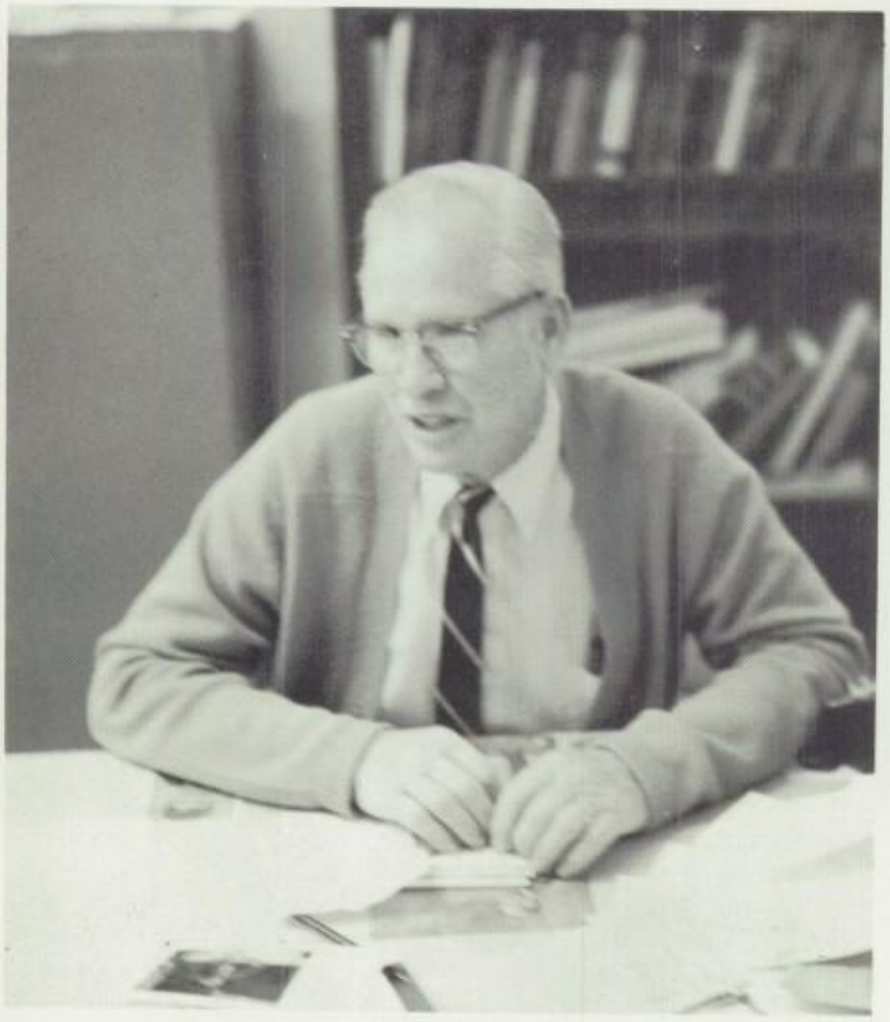
Determing school policy, attending various district meetings, and maintaining good student-teacher relations were other responsibilities of the administrative staff, besides choosing the delegates for Girls' and Boys' State.

Stanley P. Cordon, Administrative Assistant for boys, has been at North since 1945. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Arizona.

Miss Vera McCormick, Administrative Assistant for Girls, has been in education for twenty-one years. She received BA and MA degrees from the University of Arizona.

Mrs. McCormick confers with the Dean of Girls at another Phoenix High school.

Miss McCormick, Administrative Assistant and Dean of Girls, has many duties that she must perform in the everyday activities of North. Helping in attendance and disciplinary problems are the two most important parts of Miss McCormicks' jobs. She also helps by interviewing students for community positions such as writing for Teentattle.



Mr. Cardon speaks of possible disciplinary action with a student (not pictured)

Miss McCormick helped Rita Currie with her bulletin notice.

Mr. Cardon, Administrative Assistant and Dean of Boys, helps immensely in keeping North running smoothly. Mr. Cardon not only helps keep the male students of North in line but acts as sponsor and advisor for many on-campus and community clubs and organizations. Mr. Cardon this year helped to re-organize The Brotherhood Club.

Counselors Advise Students on Careers

The functions of a counselor are varied. They may range from the giving and scoring of tests, such as the ACT, NMSQT, CEEB or ITED, to good old-fashioned personal counseling.

Upon request, the student is called into the counselor's office. Here, any educational or personal problems the student might have are discussed.

For those students who are interested in continuing their education, the counseling department arranges for visits from representatives from various colleges. The counseling department can arrange for material from most U.S. colleges and universities.

Howard C. Shumate, head counselor at North, has been with us for six years. He obtained BA, BS and MS degrees from Cedarville College, Ohio State University, and Arizona State University.

Elma Wellborn had been in the field of education for nine years before coming to North six years ago. She earned her MA at ASU. She has had eighteen years' experience as an office manager and bookkeeper.

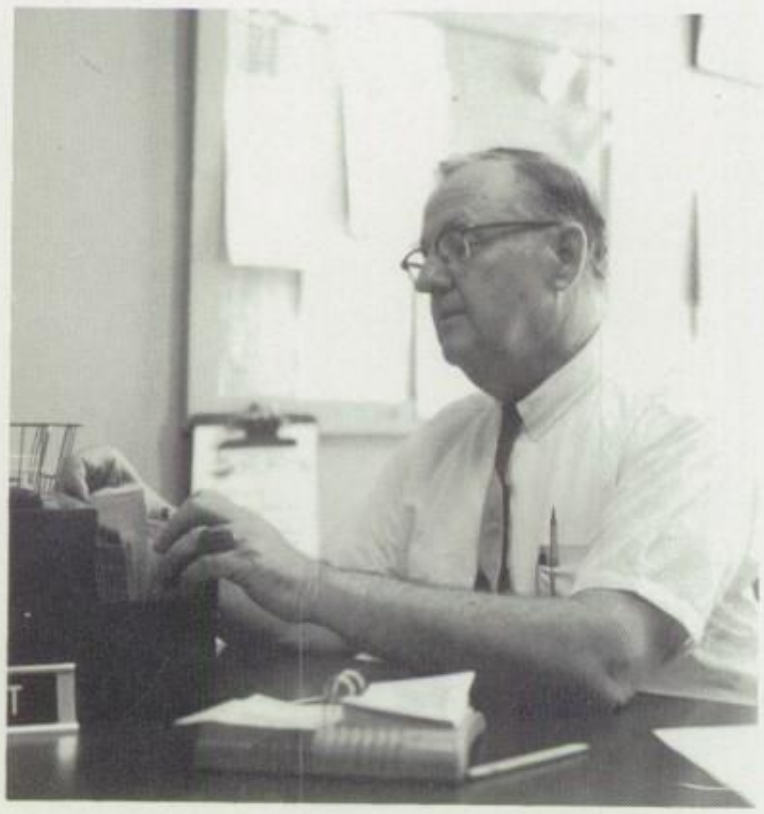
Edith Carper is in her thirteenth year of counseling at North High. She has a BS from Pennsylvania Teachers College in elementary education, and a Master's in guidance from the University of Arizona and ASU.

Mrs. Carper refers to the files for information concerning a student.

Jean Brown has been a counselor at North for fourteen years. In education for 17 years, Mrs. Brown received her BS and MS and studied at Pacific University, U of Michigan, and ASU.

Mrs. Brown is in a pensive mood as she looks over a list of grade reports.

Harry E. West, an eleven-year counselor at North, earned his degrees, BS and MS, at UCLA, Utah, NAU, ASU, and San Diego State. He has been listed in "Who's Who in the West."



Mr. West checks his files for information on testing material, just one of the tasks that keep a counselor busy.

Mrs. Farn Edwards is a newcomer to North as a counselor, after spending some twelve years in elementary education. She received her BS from Central State, and her MS from Western Reserve.

Mrs. Edwards takes a break after a tussle with some important paperwork.

Shirley Lowe has taught regular and remedial freshman English classes at North for five years. She obtained her BA degree at the University of Wyoming and her MA degree in guidance and counseling from Arizona State University.

Dorthea White has been teaching at North for several years. She obtained her BS and MS from the University of Illinois. Mrs. White has been a counselor for the Foreign Language League summer study program abroad.

Mrs. Lowe discusses the intricacies of Romeo and Juliet with her freshman English class.

Carl Wagner has taught at North for twenty-two years and teaches regular and advanced English. He earned his BA and MA degrees from Colorado, Arizona State, Northern Universities. Mr. Wagner has improved his teaching by attending English workshops at the Phoenix Union High School District.

Freshmen Explore Shakespeare Play

Freshman classes this year spent a majority of the time reading short stories and myths and fables. A lot of time was spent on novels and their content. "Romeo and Juliet" by William Shakespeare, was the play read. A movie on the play was also viewed by the freshman classes. A Tale of Two Cities by Charles Dickens was also analyzed by freshman students.

A lot of time was spent reviewing elementary school grammar. Essays, reports, both oral and written, short stories and letters were written by students to increase writing skill. Extensive discussion of the why's of the English language brought many debates into the classes.

Mr. Wagner prepares work for the following day.

Sophomores Explore Meaning of Poetry

Sophomore students studied poetry and short stories in particular this year. Continued study in grammar and writing helped students to develop speaking skills.

Sophomores studied various writers and their styles of writing. Oral readings of poetry by many different writers, showed students how different people interpret different kinds of beauty. Advanced students wrote biographies on a person of interest to them.

Both regular and advanced classes read several novels. Reading these novels increased vocabulary skill and reading comprehension.

Use of the library was also stressed during the year. Several book reviews were required during the year.

Miss Ziman encourages oral participation while reading various poems.

Marian R. Cox has been with North since it opened twenty-nine years ago. Miss Cox earned her BA from Pomona College and her MA from the University of Arizona. Miss Cox taught regular and advanced sophomore English this year.

Robert Kasold has taught at North for nine out of eleven years. He obtained his BA and MA from Arizona State University. He also attended California Institute, of Technology, Stanford University, and University of Southern California.

Mr. Kasold reads a short story aloud to his class.

Annalee Ziman, a sophomore English teacher at North for three years, earned her BA from Arizona Stage University. Miss Ziman this year sponsored the sophomore Girls League.

This year marked Bartelle Hamilton's twelfth at North. Miss Hamilton received her BS and MA degrees after studying at a number of schools, including both ASU and Arizona University.

Mr. James A. Lindquist finished his second year at North teaching Junior English, Latin, and sponsoring Legio Honoris, the Latin Club. He earned his AB and MA degrees from four universities, ASU included.

Muriel K. Miller was chairman of the Junior Literature department at North during the 67-68 school year. She has degrees from the University of Arizona and Arizona State, plus added time beyond her MA.

Mr. John Pfau was among the newcomers to North last Fall. He has a BS from Bemidji State College in Minnesota. Mr. Pfau taught two Junior English classes, a journalism class, and was advisor for North's yearbook, "Hoofbeats."

Mrs. Miller is shown correcting the mountain of papers that can accumulate during the day for an English teacher.

Junior English Students Studied American Authors

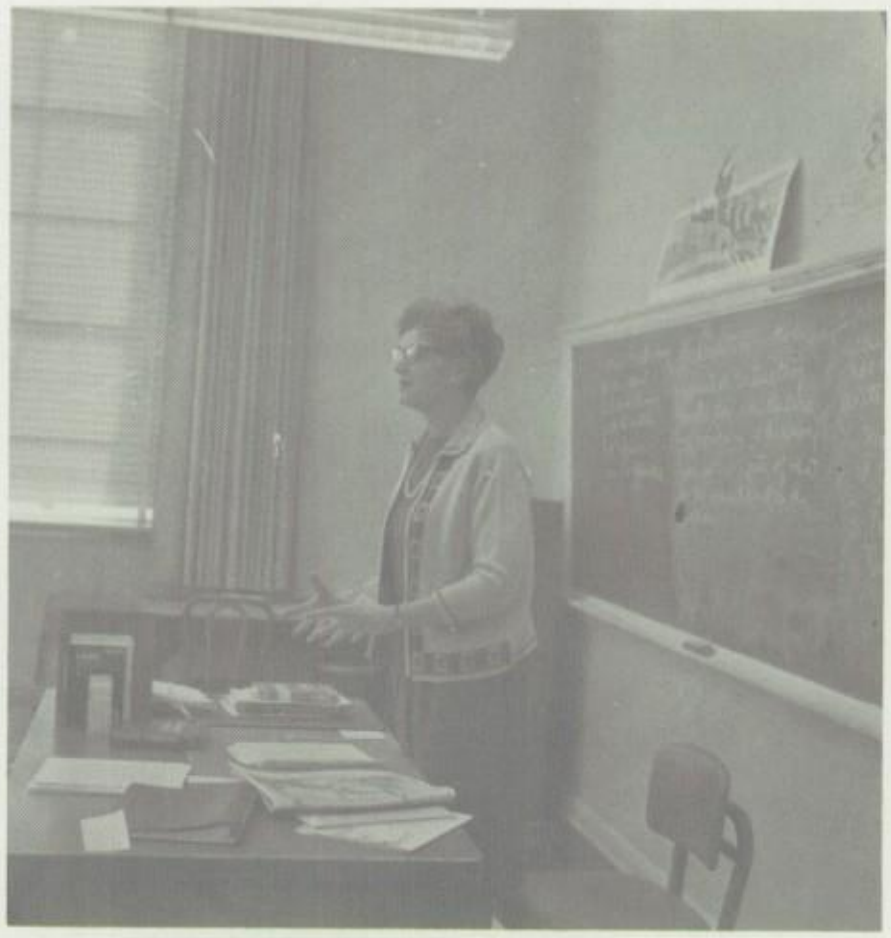
Junior classes emphasized American Literaure again this year, starting with the founders of our nation, the Puritans and Planters, and progressing to the 20th Century writers. Juniors also did their share of writing, including informal themes, essays, and book reports, and an occasional long paper.

The Junior English department spiced its curriculum by showing many fine movies, designed to stimulate interest, and provide food for thought about American Literature.

Seniors Prepare for College

Students in senior English classes this year based their study on English Literature. Students studied the development of English writers and their works from the Middle Ages to the present day. Extensive research and discussion was made on Shakespeare's "Macbeth". Senior students not only read "Macbeth" but saw a film play of it.

Preparation for college was also made by polishing students writing style. This was done particularly in extensive research papers on various subjects.



Miss Bock uses hand mannerisms to emphasize a scene in Shakespeare "MacBeth".

Mildred Jacks, English, Department chairman, has taught English classes for twenty-one years. Miss Jacks obtained her BA and MA degrees from the Universities of Missouri, Arizona, Colorado, Southern California and Arizona State University.

Dudley Ferris has taught at North for seven of his ten years of teaching. He received his BA and MA degrees from Columbia and New York Universities.

Ronald Miller has taught at North five years out of nineteen. He earned his BA from Dubuque University in Iowa. He obtained his MA from Arizona State University. Mr. Miller was Honor Court Advisor this year.

Gretchen Bock has been teaching regular and advanced senior English classes at North for twenty years. She received her MA from Michigan State University and her MA from Columbia University.

Fine Arts Enlighten Students Culturally

Mr. Hibbert has been teaching at North for three years of his four year teaching career. He obtained his MA degree from the University of Arizona. Mr. Hibbert teaches art.

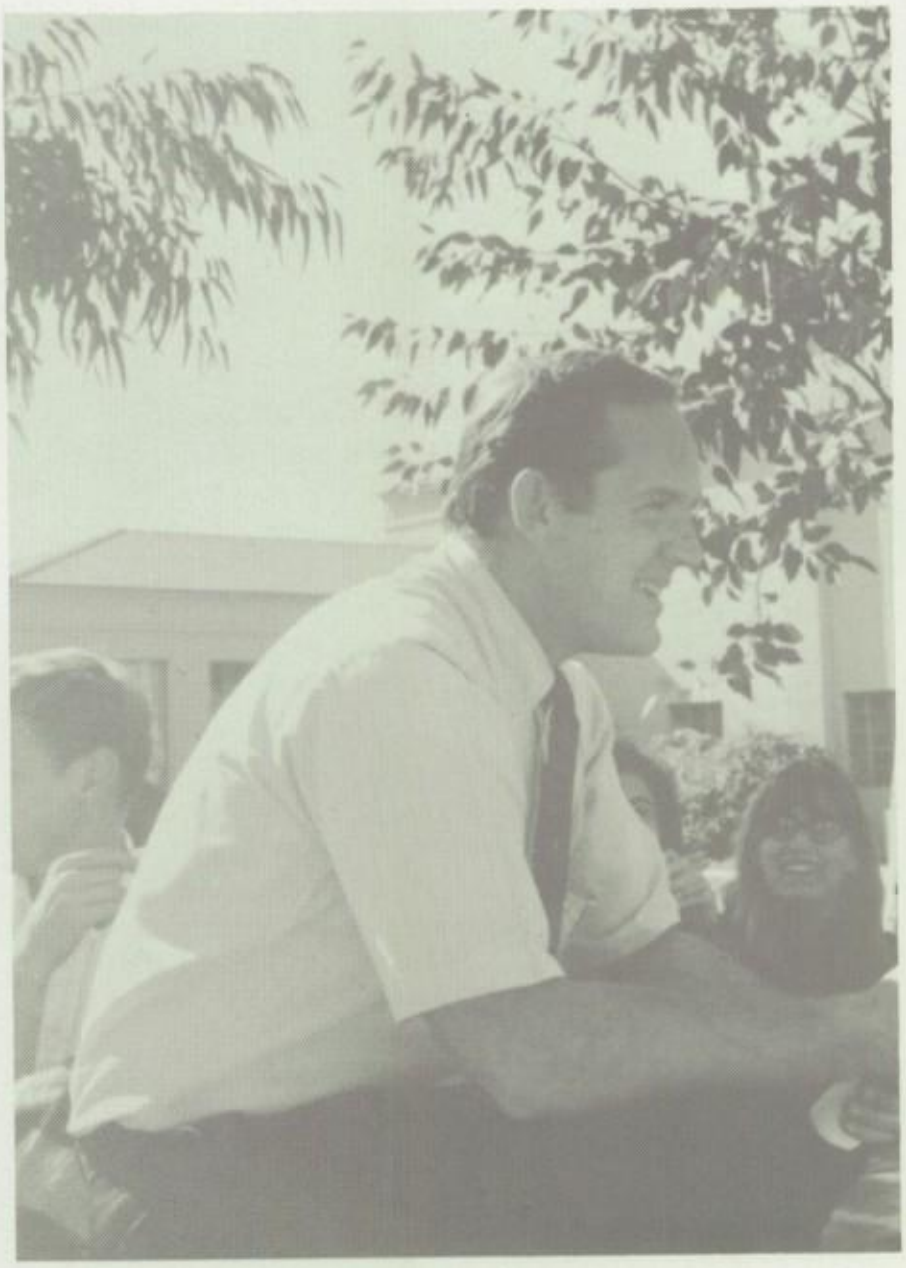
Dudley Ferris, began his seventh year at North successfully, having received his AB and MA at Columbia New York Universities. This year, as every year, Mr. Ferris sponsored the Humanities Club.

Robert J. Martin who this year has completed his second year of teaching at North. He has a BA degree and has studied at Phoenix College and Arizona State University. He has directed all campus drama productions besides teaching speech and drama classes this year.

A new member of North High's staff this year is Miss Necia Turner, who teaches ceramics and three levels of art. As a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, she received a BFA in Art Education. She is now working on an MA in the same field. Before coming to North Miss Turner taught two years.

Among the variety of subjects offered this year, by the fine arts department, were art, ceramics, humanities, speech, and drama. The art classes, this year, delved into the world of visual arts, by way of water colors, sketching, commercial art, and block printing. The ceramics classes furthered their aims, teaching students to model pottery both by hand an on the potter's wheel.

This year's Drama class began with the play "Look Back In Anger", while the humanities class continued its study in art history.



Mr. Martin often held informal classrooms on the ramada

Language Aids in Understanding Past

In this day and age, foreign languages are rapidly gaining more and more importance. This is the reason that North offers Spanish, German, Latin, and French. Except for Latin all of the languages can be used in conversation. Latin, once mastered, is the key to all the Romance languages. The classes teach reading, writing, grammar and, excluding Latin, Conversation. Magazines from the country where the language is spoken are given to the students to improve their vocabulary.

Second, third and fourth year Spanish teacher, Eddie Ruth Hutton is the chairman of the foreign language department and has taught at North for three years. Her BA and MA were earned at The University of Arizona and Columbia University.

Spanish has been taught at North for twenty one years by Mary Gomez. Her BA and MA degrees were received at Arizona State University, Southern California University, and University of Arizona.

Mary L. Grobe has taught for sixteen years, ten of them at North. Her BA and MA were earned at Indiana University, and Arizona State University.

Joan-Ellen Lindner has taught at North for two years, three years total. She has earned her BA degree in Spanish at Phoenix College, and the University of Arizona.

Heidi Ditsch has taught for four years, all at North. Her subjects are English and German. Her BA and MA degrees were earned at Arizona State University. Mrs. Ditsch was the sponsor for German Club, and AFS committee this year.

James E. Lindquist completed this year, his seventh year in teaching and his second year at North. Besides teaching at North, Mr. Lindquist teaches at Phoenix College. He received his BA and MA at the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Utah, New York University, and Arizona State University.

New Labs Aid in Class Experiments

New labs this year enabled North to have excellent equipment available to students and teachers in the Science department. Newer types of experiments were performed by students to enable them to better understand whatever phase of science they were studying.

The science courses offered by the department were earth and space science, biology, chemistry, physics, and organics. Students were taught to use the scientific method and to value things out for themselves.

Henry C. Hall this year taught biology classes at North. He has taught at North for several years, receiving his BA and MA degrees from Michigan State University and Northern State University.

Thomas E. Inman, mathematics department chairman, has taught at North for twenty-six of his twenty-nine years of teaching. He earned his BA and MA degrees from Arizona State University and University of Nevada.

Gary Looper, a graduate of Oklahoma University with a BS, has begun his first at North as an algebra and general math teacher. He has also kept busy this year as coach of the cross country, frosh basketball and baseball teams.

Above: Mr. Hardy uses the overhead projector to explain "factoring." Below: Mr. Williams works long division for a general math class.

Music Makes Life Endurable

Music Appreciation, Beginning, Intermediate, and Concert Band, Beginning, Intermediate, and Concert Orchestra and five groups of chorus, are the courses offered by North's music department this year.

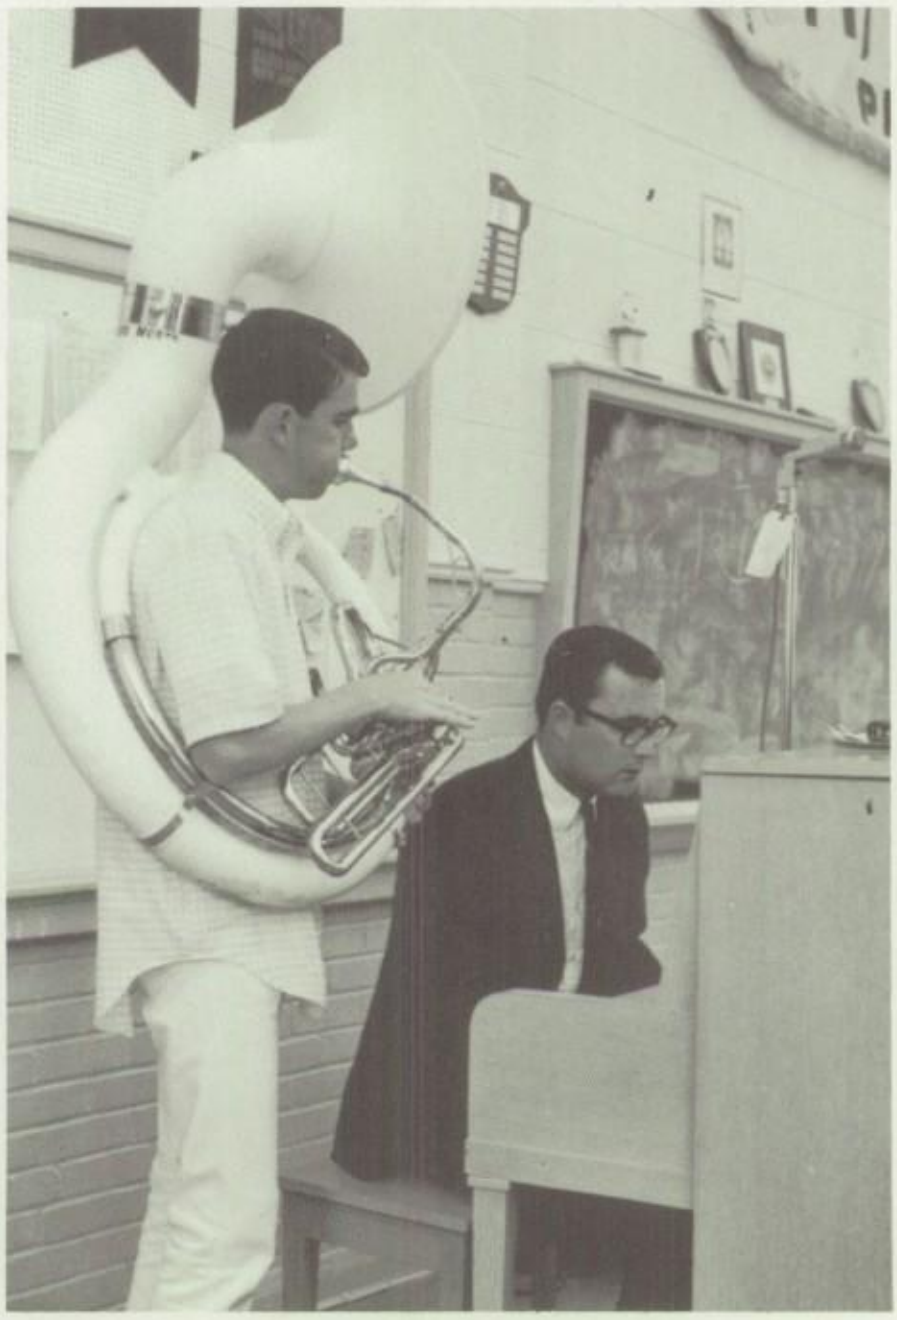
In addition to regular music classes special musical groups were sponsored by the department. Musical groups were the Debutantes, Madrigals, Choraliers and Concert Choir. Instrumental groups were the Dixielanders and Redcoats.

William Bagwell has taught at North for six of his twenty-one years in the field of Orchestra. He received his BA and MA at University of Michigan, Boston University, and the New England Conservatory of Music.

Kathleen Hergt this year helped the singing groups in choosing songs, etc. Her BA was received from Indiana State University. She received her MA from Northwestern University.

A newcomer to North High's staff this year is Mr. Walter Barr who directs three bands and two beginning choral groups. As a graduate of South Mountain High School, his accomplishments include a BS degree in education from Northern Arizona U. and an MS degree in Education.

Jim Scott practices solo.



Mr. Barr works with student on difficult piece.

Homemaking Skills Increased by Work

Bertha Hale, having received her BA and MA from Arizona State U., has taught 7 of her total 9 years at North. Mrs. Hale, having taken extra courses at the University of Arizona, has sponsored Future Homemakers of America.

Norma Sayre, a teacher at North for 25 years, is the chairman of the home economics department. She received her BS from Kansas State and her MS from the University of Arizona.

Aileen Allen, having taught 9 of 26 years at North, received her BS and MS degrees after attending Kansas State U., Arizona State, and Colorado State. Mrs. Allen also teaches child development and Human relations.

Homemaking students in sewing class pick patterns as the beginning of a new dress.

North High may take pride in having turned out another generation of future homemakers through such courses as home economics, child development, human relations, home furnishings, and home management.

General home economics classes taught nutrition, cooking, and sewing. The other classes emphasized such subjects as making a good marriage, managing a household, raising children, etc.

Students listen attentively as Miss Sayre explains home management.

Social Studies Looks at World Affairs

World History, world geography, and American history courses were what subjects students were offered from Social Studies this year. After studying the above courses students went on to study the current political situation in American government, economics, and international relations classes.

Social studies courses made students more aware of the world beyond them and concepts necessary for good citizenship were presented to students.

Homework assignments, class lectures, assigned outside reading and required outside research made social studies courses complete.

M. R. Hagerty, an instructor for thirty-four years has American history at North for sixteen years. He obtained his BA and MA degrees from Gettysburg College, Pennsylvania State College, Arizona State University, and Phoenix College. Mr. Hagerty has taught around the world.

Sidney M. Kogan has taught at North for six years. He earned his BEd and MA Degrees at Chicago Teachers College and Arizona State University. Mr. Kogan this year helped to reorganize Brotherhood Club.

Bandaging small cuts and bruises is one of the many duties of a nurse.

Special Services Were Used by Students Often

Special services at North include Health Center, Library, Bookstore, Audio Visual, and Home Visitor.

North's library has a large and varied selection of reading material for both research and reading enjoyment. The library is organized and maintained by the staff of librarians. The librarians help students to find information, and interesting reading material.

Mrs. Betrus takes care of all injuries, small or large, with commendable efficiency.

The Audio Visual department enables students to enjoy interesting and educational films that aid teacher and student in class.

The Home Visitor helps parents and children to maintain better relationships.

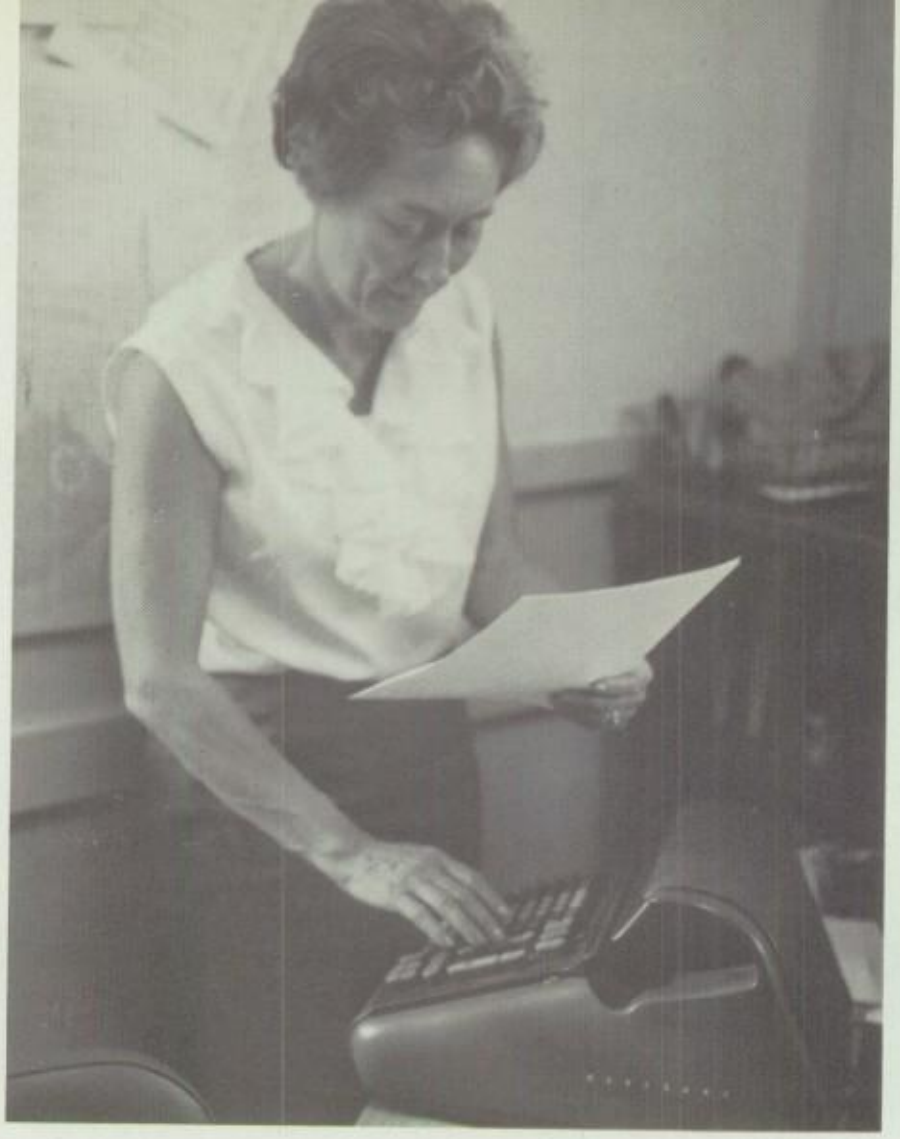
Secretaries Fulfill Many Varied Functions

"A woman's work is never done". If you don't believe this ask a secretary at North. They are the ones who have to register students, answer phone calls, type reports, file data and make sure their superiors get to the right place on time. Without them we would be lost. Secretaries will tell you how many students there are, or who the counselors are, or anything in reference to the school. They help to set up appointments to see their superiors or they will tell you, "He's not in yet", or "He's still out to lunch." All you have to do is ask.

Mrs. Smith checks a student's name and number for registration.

The secretaries who worked in the registration office this year were:
Mrs. Hittepole, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Pirtle.



Mrs. Hendricks, Mr. Berger's Secretary, checks figures on the adding machine.

Mrs. Pickering, secretary to Mr. Cardon, answers just one of many phone calls that pour into the Administrative assistant's offices.

Mrs. Kasmer and Mrs. Pickering confer.

Mrs. Smith, Registration Secretary, listens patiently to Melody Galloway's problem.

Mrs. Kasmer gets a friendly suggestion from her boss, Miss McCormick.

Marguerite Freeman has taught special education at North for three years. She has RN BSN and MA degrees, and has studied at Indianapolis General Hospital, Phoenix College and ASU.

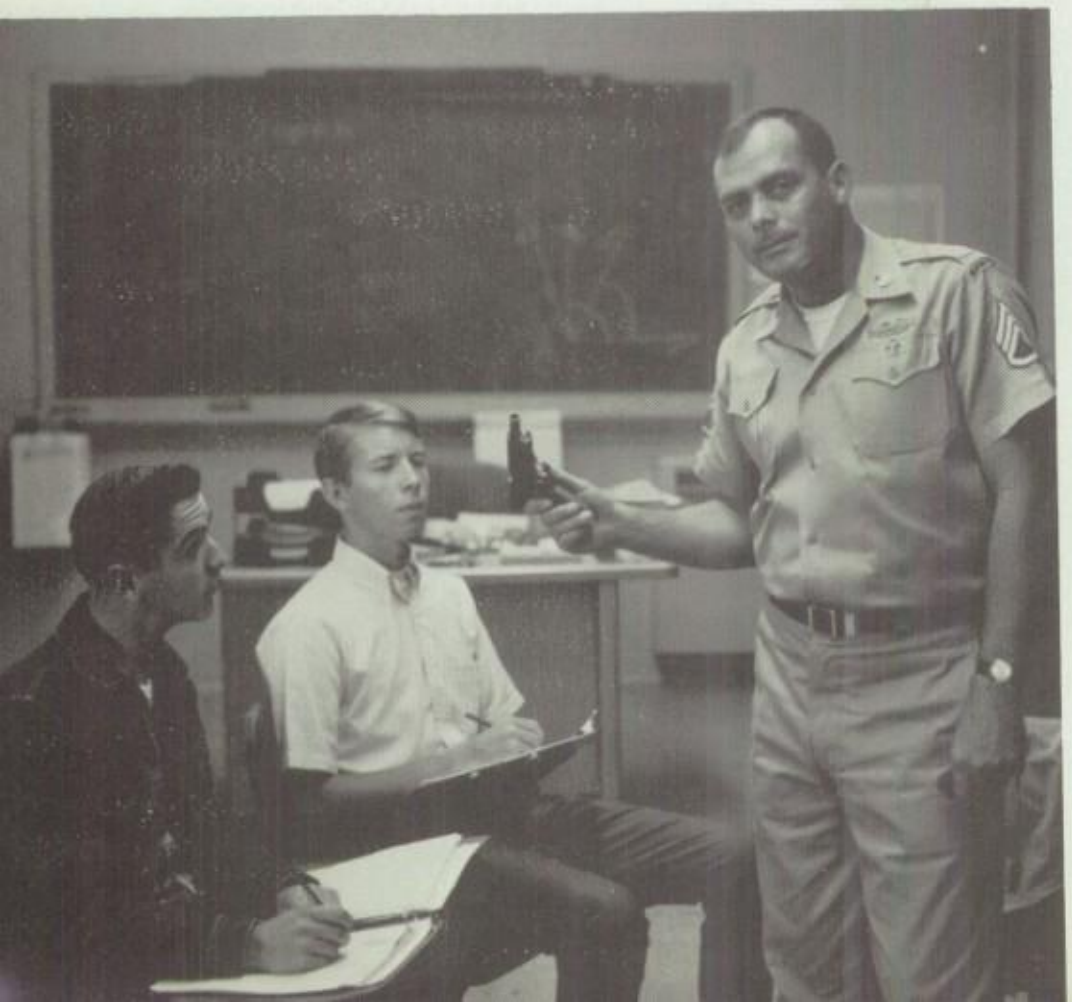
Paul Tsakaris is a newcomer to North, having taught at South Mountain for a number of years. He has been in education for over twelve years.

Special Education

Special Education classes at North High are designed to give those who are intellectually handicapped some special individual attention. Students study practical English, social Studies, science, and arithmetic. Seniors took part in regular non-solid courses, and work experience.

Sgt. Ramsey came to North last fall after spending two years in Viet Nam. He heads the ROTC program at North, including drill and rifle teams.

ROTC Cadets Learn Many Fundamentals



Military obligations could be fulfilled by many boys enrolled in Reserve Officer Training Corps classes. Character through leadership, patriotism, discipline, neatness, and alertness were developed by Cadets. The Cadets were taught the fundamentals of map reading, strategy, and handling of firearms. Among many ROTC duties was the raising of the flagpole each morning, and providing color guards for assemblies.

Cafeteria Workers And Custodians Work!

These are the ladies who are responsible for feeding many hungry people five days a week at North High. The modest, camera-shy women start early in the morning to prepare for their day's work.

Janitor Virgil Ramsey is shown on night duty at North, preparing the halls for the next morning's onrush of students.

After a good meal, there are always things to clean up and put away, one of the cafeteria worker's many duties.

Among the hardest-working people at North high are the cafeteria and custodial workers. Cafeteria workers come early in the morning to prepare lunch for the hungry masses fourth and fifth periods. Many workers come at five in the morning and work until late afternoon.

The custodians are jack-of-all-trades. Their work ranges from fixing a lock to watering down the stadium track. Janitors are always on hand to fix little things, or to help out in a major repair problem.

Members of the Executive Committee decided who would be the next Student-of-the-Month.

Students of Months Chosen by Committee

The Students-of the-Months were chosen by the members of the Executive Committee on the basis of past school service and contribution to the community as a whole. The students can be nominated for consideration by the committee by any student. The student has only to fill out a form with the nominee's activities and various other attributes, and then submit the form to the committee members. The Student-of-the-Month was sanctioned by the Northeast Phoenix Optimist Club, and the students were honored at the monthly luncheon.

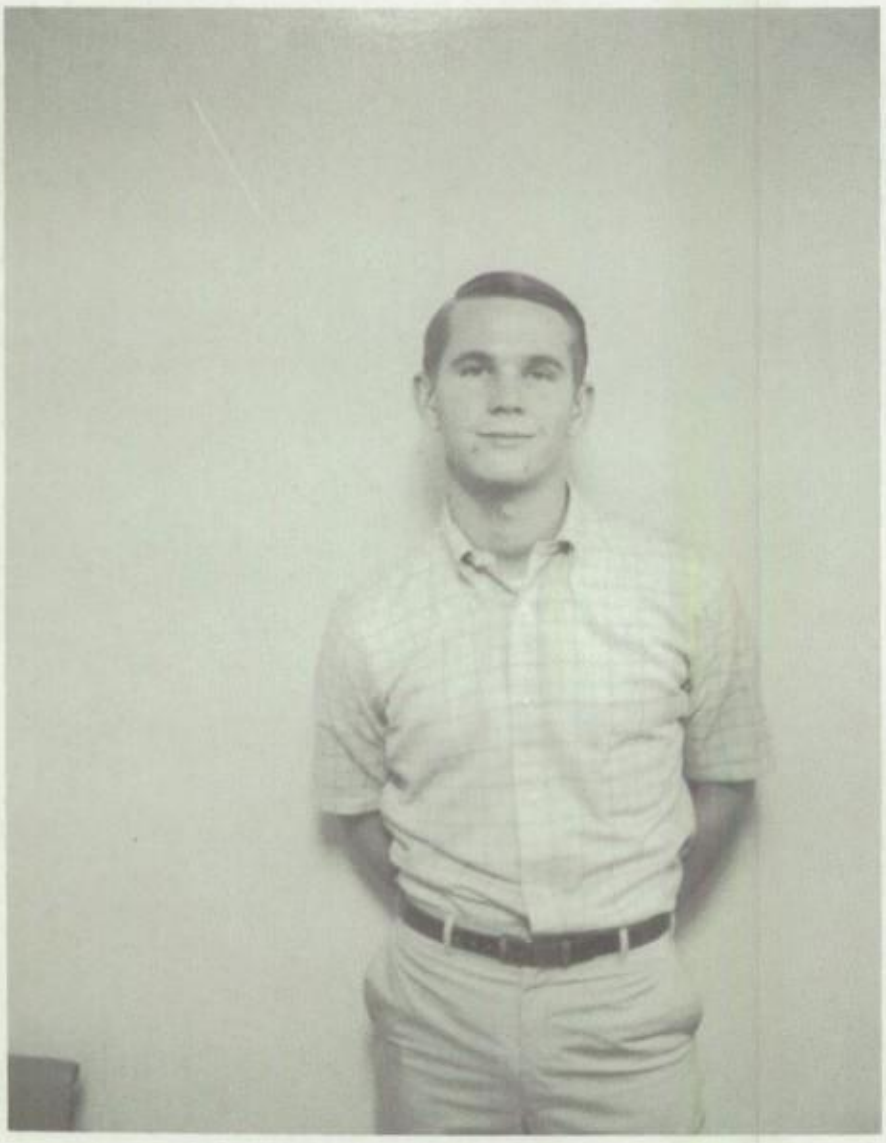
Mr. Pfau determined the candidates for QUILL & SCROLL.

National Merit Semi-Finalists were Marilyn Vache, Ruth Mayer, Carol Wilkinson and Roland Simpson.



Bob Payne was chosen Junior Rotarian.

North Placed Four in National Merit

The National Merit Test, given during the junior year, is a device by which many institutions determine the most deserving of scholarship applicants. Those who score sufficiently high are named Semi-Finalists and those just below them are awarded Letters of Commendation. The Semi-Finalists compete further; and, if further testing reestablishes their scholastic abilities, they are then named Finalists and are eligible for Merit Scholarships. These scholarships are awarded on basis of need and can be used by the student at the college of his choice.

Carol Wilkinson was chosen as the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tommorrow.

Juniors Chosen As Essay Winners

Each year, North High has the opportunity to recommend three students for the National Council of Teachers of English essay contest. The students are chosen on the basis of past grades received in English and current writing ability as demonstrated in a series of essays on various topics. Mr. Ron Miller, teacher of the advanced junior English class, chose as participants Gary Nolan, Robert Zeigler, an active speech participant, and Abbi Carson, Editor-in-Chief of the 1968 HOOFBEATS. The students were required to write an autobiography and two original works, one of which was extemporaneous. Their works were then judged in April, and scholarships were awarded.

Arizona State Chose Junior

Arizona State University has twice chosen to present its Medallion of Merit to a North High junior student. The student is chosen for the award on the basis of participation in extra-curricular activities, leadership abilities, academic standing, and community service. Due to the late selection by the university the yearbook is unable to publish the name of the winner for this year. However, the chosen student will be announced during April and attend a special luncheon during the month.

Jr. Rotarians, U of A Boy, Girl

Two senior boys are chosen as Junior Rotarians each year by the Rotary Club of Phoenix. They are selected by the members of the administration and are invited to attend the monthly meeting of the Rotary Club. The administration selects one senior boy for each semester.

The University of Arizona Outstanding Junior Boy and Girl are selected annually by the North High Honors and Awards Committee. The recipiants are the junior boy and girl who have maintained the highest grade point average for their first three years. The award, a certificate, is presented at the Honors Assembly by a U of A alumni.

Members of the Top 2% of the graduating class of 1968 were Carol Wilkinson and Joe Garner. Those not pictured were Roland Simpson, Ruth Mayer, Marilyn Vache, and Bob Payne.

Members of R.O.T.C. practiced for Rifle Team tryouts. North students Ray Olvey and Chett Gunkel both held all city rankings.

Seniors Ranked On Percent Basis

Instead of the validictorian, salutatorian method of class rank; the Phoenix Union High School System ranked the members of the class of 1968 on a percentile basis. The students were grouped into categories of Top 2%, 5%, 10%, 25%, 33%, 50%, and Lower 33% and 25%. Those students who ranked in the Top 2% were recognized on the graduation programs with the words "with highest distinction." The Top 5% were recognized with the words "with high distinction" and those in the Top 10% with "with distinction." Students who maintained membership in Parnassus and National Honor Society were further recognized in the Graduation ceremonies.

Speech Contest Participants were, FRONT ROW: Lee Falk, Debbie Clark, Tom Peterson; BACK ROW: Tim Evens, and Grace Switzer, Robert Zeigler, John Brooke, and Dee Tumminello.

Debate Team members were Lee Falk, Tim Evens, Bob Zeigler, Debbie Clark, John Brooke, and Tom Peterson.

North's Speakers Took Top Places

North's Speech Participants took two first place divisionals in the Rotary Speech Contest, and placed second and third at the Arizona Interscholastic Contest held at Phoenix Union High School. In addition to the team record, John Brooke received a special award for Outstanding Oratory from the Arizona Republic and the American Legion Post Greenway. The Debate Team held matches against West and Central, but both opposing teams dropped out at the last minute.

North Placed Six in State Football

Through the excellent coaching of Coach Dick Trimmer, North was able to place six players on All-State Teams. Those receiving the highest ratings were Mike Collins, Dale Metz, Bill Bandhauer, Paul Buske, Joe Lynch, Dan Abrams, Tim Finn, and John Svoboda. The players participated in a game featuring the other top members throughout the State.

North had six All-State Music winners. Five of the winners (Jack Torres, Chris Cardon, Vicki Lemons, Shirley Gladden, and Lynn Wolfard) placed in the chorus division. The remaining winner, Laura Fisher, placed in the All-State Orchestra division.

Seniors discussed their class rankings during the lunch hour.

Members Raised Funds for AFS

Members of the Student Council can well be proud of their year of service. Student Council is the organ of North High which represents the will of the student body. The council is composed of the Executive Committee, Homeroom representatives who were elected for semester terms during their second period, all club presidents, and publications editors.

The Student Council met during different periods every two weeks to remedy school problems and to suggest improvements in both the governmental and physical aspects of the North High campus.

The council was most active in supporting A.F.S. and held the carnival in April. The members also supported a clean-up campaign, and a yearbook campaign.

The council operated under the principle of democracy, and representative government, and worked to build leadership, self-respect and democracy.

Bob Payne motions to elect Roland Simpson Parliamentarian unanimously.

The Service Organization is composed of representatives elected in their homerooms. Their sole concern is the welfare of the less fortunate. These concerned youths supported worthy hospitals, homes, and other establishments. The organization met after school during this year and sponsored the homeroom service projects. Each homeroom is required to complete at least one service project each semester. The president this year was Vic Zannis.

Committee Planned School Assemblies

The Assembly Committee planned all assemblies and attempted to make them both interesting and informative. The assemblies presented were in the basic areas of pep, honors, entertainment, and education. These ranged from Concert Choir to football, from Lt. Richard Harris to basketball, and from Christmas to Senior Farewell. Senator Paul Fannin was scheduled to speak at an assembly, but because of a debate in the Senate House, Senator Fannin was unable to come to Phoenix.

Assembly Committee members were, Vic Zannis, and Bob Payne. Not pictured was Phil Roberts.

Committee Members Worked for Spirit

Rally and Traditions Committee has the job of promoting school spirit and boosting the students participation in school affairs. This year, the committee had many new ideas for raising school spirit. For the first time, the committee sponosored Twirp week which was a big success.

The committee consists of the Student Body Recording Secretary, and all of the class Secretaries. Interested students were also urged to join.

Rally and Traditions members were, FRONT ROW: Grace Switzer, Dee Tumminello, Shirley Gladden, Laurie Udall, Carolyn Wade, and Dee Perry; SECOND ROW: Dick Souder, Marty Pritchard, and Karen Perry.

Elections Committee Totaled All Ballots

Elections Committee was responsible for supervising the voting at the Freshmen, Homecoming, Student Body Officers, and Senior Mosts elections.

All elections were organized to run smoothly and honestly. In case of an extremely close vote, a runoff was held to insure the election of the best candidate. After all votes were counted, results were posted to inform the Student Body.

Prospective members submitted applications which the Executive Committee reviewed. They then chose the most qualified students to serve on the Elections Committee.

Order Was Kept by Board Members

Cafeteria Control Board members were in charge of keeping order in the cafeteria, straightening the chairs, moving books off the tables, preventing students from cutting in line, and giving honor court subpoenas for infraction of cafeteria rules.

Prospective members submitted applications to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee selected the members on the basis of personality, previous service to school, and willingness to donate their lunch hour for the betterment of their school.

Mr. Bridgewater of the social studies department was the advisor for Cafeteria Control Board. His direction was invaluable in maintaining order, and controlling the sound system in the cafeteria. Again this year, the committee maintained it's high standards of excellence.

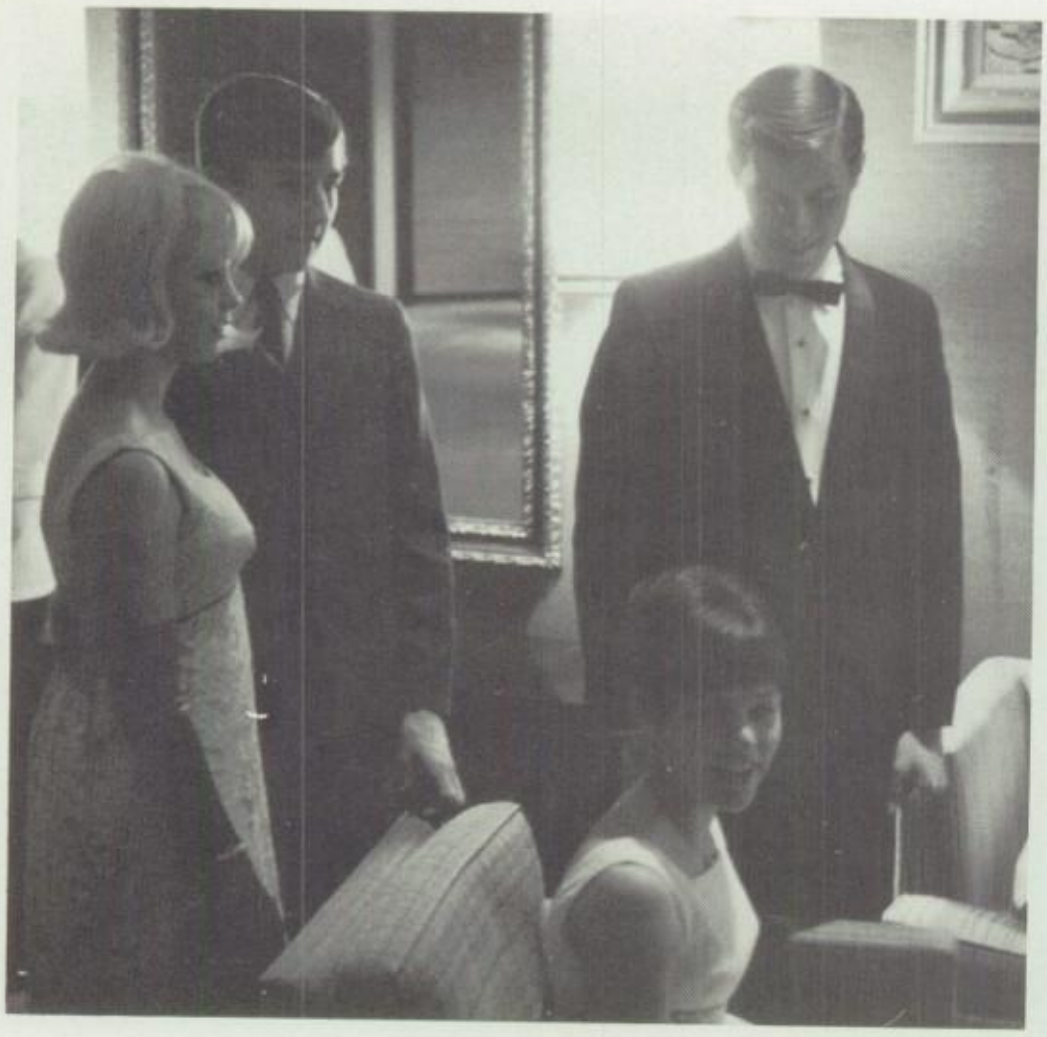
Towne House Site of Jr.-Sr. Prom

The prom this year had the theme of "Magical Mystery Tour". The hall was divided into eight smaller rooms. Each one had a motif of a particular country. Of interest was the India room. Ashok, the Foreign Exchange Student said that "the decorations captured the spirit of my country." The prom was held at the TowneHouse on North Central Avenue. The music was provided by "Portraits of Sound." To raise money for the prom the Junior class sold candy and sponsored the "Basketbrall" from KRIZ.



State Delegates Had Model Legislature

Boys' and Girls' State Delegates were, FIRST ROW: Sharon Coursen, Shirley Gladden, and Alison Wallace; SECOND ROW: Vic Zannis, John Svoboda, and Storme Moreland; THIRD ROW: Bob Payne and Pete Span.

Girls' State and Boys' State are both a week packed full of fun, excitement, and knowledge. Each delegate learns about city, county, and state governments, political parties, elections, and offices.

Many topics are discussed in lectures and assemblies. Everyone is given the opportunity to practice what they are taught, because actual elections are held, and a model legislature is set up and run by the delegates.

Much is learned in just one week, and the fellowship, friendship, and personal satisfaction are the lasting results in each delegate.

Workshop Held on NAU Campus

The 1967 Publications Workshops were held on the Northern Arizona University campus at Flagstaff during the first three weeks of June. The two workshops offered were yearbook and newspaper.

At the yearbook workshop, the students were divided into various groups, according to their staff position, with the groups taking courses in copywriting, layout, editor-in-chief seminar, and the practicum. The classes took place for two hours each morning and another two hours after lunch. After three o'clock, the students were free to participate in extra-curricular activities, i.e., volleyball or swimming. Newpaper had similar events. During these sessions a yearbook and a newspaper were prepared by the various sessions.

Lydia LaRue, Co-Editor of the Mustang Roundup, uses the knowledge she gained from the Publication Workshop at Flagstaff.

Anytown Counselors from North were Hughla Allen, and Bob Beliak.

North High Sent Delegates to Anytown

Anytown promotes understanding, respect for other's opinions, and brotherhood.

A group of 150 students from Arizona were placed in a utopian community for one week. They discussed national and personal conflicts dealing with racial and religious prejudices.

Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Mormon, Buddhist, Islam, and Baha'i faiths took turns with daily services. Mr. Cardon led the Mormon service.

Anytown broke many racial and religious barriers in just one short week, and Anytown made the unprejudiced atmosphere a reality for all.

Sophomore Anytown Delegates were Laurie Uda and Debbie Elias.

Junior delegates to Anytown were Jay Soloff, and Sue Nelson.

Senior Anytown delegates were Carol Winter, and Jack Torres.

Teams Complemented By Poms and Cheers

Pom pon officers were Camille Romley co-captain, and Shirley Gladden captain.

To complement our winning sports teams were the Poms and Cheers. They performed at all the football and basketball games, those at home and away, assemblies and with the band in the Rodeo Parade in March.

Their routines and maneuvers required practice time in classes and on the girls' own time. From viewing the other schools on television and at the games, it was easy to see that the girls were the best in the Valley. Their superiority was the direct result of the many talents of Mrs. Phelps.

In addition to performing, the group was also a service organization. Merely being on campus is a big service, but the classes are the major spirit group on campus, along with the Pep Club.

This year the Poms and Cheers elected captain and co-captains. The Cheer captain was Marilyn Miller, and the co-captain was Elke Bielec, both seniors. The Pom captain was Shirley Gladden, and Pom co-captain was Camille Romley. Mrs. Phelps was the advisor, and again did an excellent job.

Cheer Captain was Marilyn Miller, Co-captain was Elke Bielec.

The Cheers performed at West.

Elke Bielec Co-Captain.

Simpson Related Foreign Experience

Dear Mustangs,

The dawn of July 26, 1967, began for me a ten-week experience incomparable as my plane touched down in Lima, Peru. For almost a year I had waited to go abroad with the A.F.S. Americans Abroad Program. Now, as I arrived to meet my family, my thoughts turned toward my attempts to enter a new family and become a genuine part of it.

If I had any doubts about succeeding, they were soon dispelled by the loving warmth of my family. Indeed, all those with whom I came into contact could not have been nicer. It was my family though, with whom I spent most of my time. My father, Augusto, a prominent lawyer, and my mother, Rosa, treated me as their second son. My sisters, Rosita and Graciela, showed me everywhere in school and out. With my brother, Augusto, though, I went almost everywhere. Complementing each other from the start, we always enjoyed each others company, and I know he will always be a brother to me.

My ten weeks passed in a swirl of activity parties, movies, dates, banquets, meetings, and school. My stay, however, was not merely diversionary; with each day my knowledge of my country, my culture, and myself grew along with my knowledge of Peruvian life.

With great heartache I left my new family and country to return to Phoenix. I returned though, with a broader vision of our world and a deeper faith in the value of AFS. To you, Mustangs, I pass this faith in AFS and I hope that future AFS students may benefit from it as I did. This experience will be invaluable to me in my later life.

Sincerely yours,

Roland

Subramanian Wrote to Thank Students

Hi Mustangs,

Working with the AFS Committee, I have realized what a job it is to bring an AFSer to a school. I have been the lucky AFSer this year, 1967-68; I owe this to the Soransons and you.

Between my seventeenth and eighteenth years, I have learned things—your individuality, culture, and humor—that I could never have known about by simply "walking together and talking together" with you. Henceforth, my answer to the question, "Are the people there different from here?", I will answer a firm, "No, people are the same everywhere."

Thanks to all the teachers and AFS chapter members for all their guidance and help. Some of the subjects I most dreaded in August are now my favorite.

I have especially enjoyed being in Vikings, Key Club, and Parnassus. Soon, you'll be hearing of the Madras "American football" team.

League Members Sponsored Show

One of the major service organization on campus was the Girls' League Cabinet. Shirley Gladden was their experienced leader. They sponsored the Mother-Daughter tea, a fashion show, and the Blue and Silver Formal which was entitled "Winter Wonderland" on December 2.

The Girls League Cabinet was composed of two representatives from each class. Four representatives, including the president came from the senior class. The Faculty advisor was Mrs. Lowe.

Their most popular activity was the Simplicity Pattern Co. Fashion Show on Feb. 13. Auditions for models were held prior to the exclusively female assembly which presented the latest pattern fashions.

Students modeled before Mrs. Allen, Miss Turner and Miss Sayre.

AFS Promoted by Committee Members

The purpose of the AFS Committee was to promote the North High foreign exchange student and AFS in general, and to make the exchange student feel more a part of America and the Student Body of North High. The members of the committee were chosen by the president of the committee for the previous year on the basis of past service to AFS, and the incoming freshmen were chosen during the first month of school by the committee members.

In order to raise the $750 necessary to guarantee a student for the following year, the members of the committee sponsored many bake sales, an ice cream social, and various other fund raising projects.

During AFS Week, which was held in February, an assembly introducing exchange students from other high schools was presented. The foreign students then spent the rest of the day touring the campus and getting to know the students at North.

The president of AFS Committee was Roland Simpson, North's returnee from Lima, Peru; and the foreign exchange student was Ashok Subramanian, who came to North from Madras, India.

AFS Officers were: FRONT ROW: Dennis Hopkins, Roland Simpson, and Dave Soranson; BACK ROW: Storme Moreland, Grace Switzer, Jessie Catlin, Yolanda Quezada and Mr. Glenn, Advisor.

Orchestra Played at School Assembly

Under the direction of Mr. Bagwell, the sixteen members of the North High Orchestra played at school assemblies, for the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, and at various of the valley grammar schools. During the second semester, the members of the orchestra presented a special program for students from Longview, Machan, and Whittier grammar schools.

The Sophomore Girls' Choir sang "Laura's Theme."

Groups Performed Around Community

The North High Madrigal singers met fourth period, and were under the direction of Miss Hergt. Because of scheduling difficulties, some of the members had to give up their lunch periods to perform with the group.

Madrigals were selected from the Concert Choir on the basis of dependability & talent. The group performed on channel 3 TV, at the Cloud Club atop the United Bank Building, on KBUZ and KOOL radio, at the Adams and Westward Ho Hotels, at the Salt River Project, at the executive club of Phoenix, and in competition at Tempe High, ASU, U of A, and many other places as the music representatives from North.

The Choraliers, or advanced girls chorus, met fourth period and sang at the fair, Whittier Elementary School, and for the Jack-In-The-Box employees Christmas dinner. The Debs sang for the Orchestra Assembly.

Choir Traveled to California Coast

The Concert Choir was one of the most active and productive group on campus was evident at the very beginning of this school year. The Choir's busy calendar began with the October assembly and the Christmas show. They had toured the elementary schools and played the Executive club. This experience stood them in good stead for the competition at the City Festival held at East High, the Central Arizona Festival held at Tempe, and the Choir Festival held at the U of A.

Their musical ability as well as the result of their fund raising activity eventually took them on a tour of the West coast. The choir is deeply indebted and grateful to those loyal Mustangs who participated in the candy sale and ticket sale. The choir visited Disneyland, the T.V. show, Hollywood Square, Knotts Berry Farm, University Studio and Grauman's Chinese Theater over the rodeo weekend.

Members Received Top Mark at ASU

The North High Band had one of the most successful years. Under the fine direction of Walter Barr, the band performed incomparable halftime shows, which ranged from the Beatles "Sgt. Peppers Lonely Hearts Club Band" to a tribute to our great United States. The band's goal was to please the younger generation with the latest pop songs and to provide an exciting as well as entertaining half-time performance. Because the band felt it had great potential, they planned for a trip to the California coast in the Spring. Money was raised by the whole band working to clean houses, selling items at games, and receiving a gift from the Boosters Club. The band attended the NAU Band Day and the ASU Band Day and was one of three to receive the best rating. They also marched in the NAU Band Day and the Rodeo Parade. In September, the band appeared on the new Phoenix Channal 21 KPAZ during the first week of broadcasting at the Star Theater.

This year, the band was under the direction of Mr. Walter Barr, who comes from Flagstaff. Mr. Barr worked very hard with the band, and put in many hard hours of work to plan the many intricate formations which the band performed for the Student Body. Next year, the band hopes for new uniforms.

Homecoming '67

A radiant Shirley Gladden is crowned by '66 queen Sandy Cook.

The Senior's float, "Out, Out, Ye Longhorns," won a first-place prize.

Homecoming 1967 was successful in many ways. North kept alive a string of homecoming victories by dumping East, 24-7. Shirley Gladden and Mike Collins, Seniors, were chosen to reign over proceedings with their royal court of Senior Elke Bielec, Junior Merrilee Wright, Sophomore Chris Bernal, and Freshman Jan Gaff. The theme for homcoming '67 was "Shakespearean Festival '67" and the floats were decorated accordingly. Seniors took first place with their float, "Out, Out Ye Longhorns." Clubs entering floats were Key Club Girl's League, R.O.T.C., Silhouettes, and Pep Club. Senior Vic Zannis shouldered much of the responsibility for homecoming preparation by acting as chairman and co-ordinator. This year's homecoming was indeed one of the best ever at North High.

The Junior float took second prize with its theme of "Et Tu, Mustangs."

Newly-crowned Queen Shirley beams as she takes the traditional victory ride around the Mustang stadium in a four-car processional.

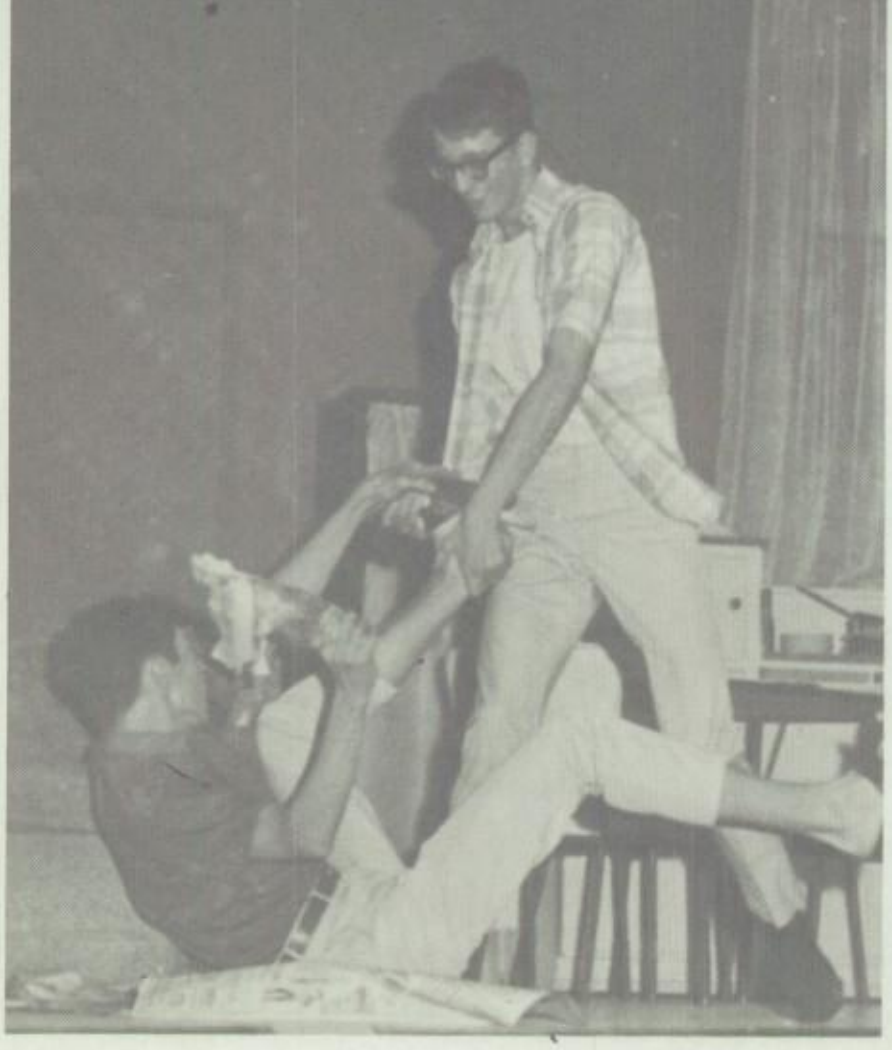
Osborne's 'Anger



John Osborne's play, "Look Back in Anger," was one of the true milestones in contemporary North High Drama history. This attempt at a more mature dramatic production was a welcome change from the conservative comedies of past years. The December production centered around a sadistical young man, Jimmy Porter, who is disillusioned with society and its values, rejecting his middle class upbringing.

Osborne's poignant drama showed the disharmonies apparent in a conflict between a person's environment and inner self.

Yearbook Produced on 2-Column Plan

Countless hours of intense concentration, months of preparation, late hours after school, frayed nerves, creative joy, and the final satisfaction of a job well done—these are just a few of the human qualities which helped make the 1968 HOOFBEATS possible. The staff sacrificed dates, homework, meals, and sleep to make this yearbook possible. Students skipped lunches and cokes, saving their money for 68's chronicle of North.

Abbie Carson, Editor-In Chief, giggled after discovering a humorous memo in her staff box.

Newspaper Put Out On Monthly Basis

Under the direction of Mr. Ted Morgan, the ROUNDUP Staff endeavored to meet its bi-weekly deadlines. The staff members wrote copy and headlines and pasted up the pages. Kate Woodward and Lydia LaRue, editors-in-chief, were in charge of proofreading copy, checking layouts, seeing that pages were ready to be sent to the printer, and checking the finished paper for errors.

This year, the paper was very interesting and contained an astrological forecast, special stories by Ashok, the foreign exchange student, excellent sports section, and many witty stories and articles written by the feature editor, Marianne Evensen.

Der Deutscheklub- Knowledge of the German folkways

Der Deutsche Klub, North High's German Club, functions to promote knowledge and understanding of the Germanic peoples and their customs.

German Club members corresponded with German students in Europe, thus broadening their knowledge of the country and the German-speaking peoples of the world.

Germans wouldn't be Germans without pretzels, and in keeping with the German customs, Der Deutschers sponsored several pretzel sales throughout the year.

President Russell Garner discusses some material with Der Deutsche Klub members.

French Club Was Re-established at North High

French Club, absent from North High for two years, found a revival this year under the enthusiastic guidance of Mrs. Grobe, club advisor.

The 21-member group celebrated Mardi Gras and presented various skits, done in French, of course, to the student body at large. The purpose of the club was to acquaint students with French culture, folkways, and morrays.

French Club officers were Marianne Evenson, Vice-President; Karen Perry, President; Denise Perry, Secretary. Mrs. Grobe is the sponsor.

Mrs. Grobe talked with club members Chris Kinter, Karen Perry, and Laurie Gordon.

Chess Members Practiced Techniques

Chess Club was new to the North High campus this year.

Sponsored by Mr. Wheelwright, the club was established for the purpose of augmenting its members' knowledge of chess techniques.

Different teams were formed within the club and practice matches were performed during club meetings.

Key Club, North High's Kiwanis sponsored service club, strove to raise the quality of community and school life through unselfish service.

To achieve its goals, the club gave a $300 scholarship, sponsored a traffic safety campaign, promoted regular church attendance, and aided its sponsoring Kiwanis Club.

Led by Vic Zannis, president; Jack Nutter, vice-president; Roland Simpson, secretary and Southwest District treasurer; and Dennis Hopkins, treasurer, North High's Key Club closed its years activities by attending the Southwest District Convention in Albuquerque to compare its accomplishments with fellow Key Clubs and members.

TAP Helps The Handicapped

Teenage Program, originally Teens Against Polio, was expanded to include all the handicapped and is now a statewide project.

Tag Day was one of TAP's projects to raise money this year. The club members visited local shopping centers to receive donations. They also sponsored a money drive on the North High Campus. Donations aided the handicapped throughout the state.

TAP Club officers were: (bottom to top) Jan Gaff, Treasurer; Nancy Waller, Advisor; Margaret Agee, President; and Denise Lemons, Vice-President.

Humanities Club Pursues Cultural Events Throughout Valley

North High's Humanities Club, some thirty strong, had as its main objective "the stimulating of interest in culture itself, and participation in various cultural events in the valley." The club raised money for cultural record albums and films by sponsoring a hootenanny in the Corral, and doing a skit on "Spoon River Anthology" by Edgar Lee Masters.

Mr. Ferris, Humanities Club advisor, points out operas of merit to club members.

Radio Club Pursues Interest in Electronics

The Radio Club is a group of students who are interested in the art of amateur radio operation.

They sent an application to the Federal Communications Commission for a club station. Their field trips consisted of interesting and informative visits to various amateur installations. They were fortunate to hear lectures from radio experts on various radio devices, and electronic aspects of the radio.

Mike Ricks and Bill Thorne are shown "trouble-shooting" a transmitter in the Radio Club's room.

Art Club Members Show Aesthetic Interest

The purpose of Art Club was to increase the appreciation of art on campus. The club is made of many of North High's artistic students and those who wish to increase their artistic abilities.

Club members went on field trips and toured the Phoenix Art Museum and other places of value.

Jack Torres and Ron Wade helped make posters for North High's drama productions.

Art Club officers were Karen Coons secretary; Iven Palmer, vice-president; and Cathy Hatton, president.

FBLA Sent Delegates to Conventions

Missing is President Jay Soloff. The newly-elected officers pose after listening to a talk by a member of the Church of Latter Day Saints.

The Brotherhood Club at North High was started this past year, and rapidly grew to some twenty-five members under the guidance of Mr. Kogan, Club sponsor.

The purpose of Brotherhood Club is to promote good faith between all races, creeds, and religions. Their theme aptly describes their feeling: "Walk Together, Talk Together, O Ye Peoples of the Earth; Then, and only then, shall ye have peace."

Club members sponsored two bake sales to send delegates to Anytown, sold bagels by the cafeteria, and listened to talks by various religious and ethnic groups.

Lettermen Promote Much School Spirit

The Lettermen's Club is an athletic honorary club for those who have earned a letter in some sport at North. The Lettermen have had a great deal to do with promoting spirit at North this past year.

Some of their activities include the selling of beat tags and sweatshirts to raise money for equipment. In addition, the annual Dad's Night was held with great success.

It's usually a hard day's night for North's lettermen, especially the football players who are in the bottom of the pile!

Silhouettes Perfect Dance Movements

The purpose of Silhouettes Club is to devise new, different, and interesting dancing techniques. Also, the club helps members to improve on their dancing ability, and members can compare their progress.

Since Silhouettes is a relatively new club, members entered their first Homecoming float two years ago, yet they won first prize.

In the spring, a selected group from Silhouettes Club visits each modern dance class and selects a number of girls who offer the most dancing ability and desire to learn.

Rigid body control and agility are of the essence to Silhouettes members.

ROTC Sent Christmas Cards to Vietnam

Four of North's ROTC members are shown doing some early morning marching. And they say the army has it tough! They should try it at North.

Marilyn Miller was ROTC's Batallion Queen.

The major purpose of the ROTC Club is to give people a better idea of teenagers and to give a feeling of pride to those enrolled in it.

Each year, the ROTC Club sets up major activities. Their first homecoming float was built this year. Also this year, the club collected money for Samuel Gomper's Memorial Clinic. The most important project, however, was the sending of Christmas cards to our soldiers in Vietnam.

Photo Club is made up of students who are interested in amateur photography as a career. The members are trained in methods of caring for cameras, and shooting clear and interesting pictures.

During the year, club members entered their best photographs in various competitive exhibits throughout Phoenix and the state.

NHS Sponsored Scholarship Grant

National Honor Society is composed of juniors and seniors chosen on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Activities of the Society this year included a college panel, tutoring, and raising money for a scholarship to be given to a North High senior. One of their money raising projects was a concession stand at the Talent Show.

Parnassus Sponsored Scholarship

Parnassus was a four-year scholarship honorary society, whose membership was determined by grade average after each semester. This year, Parnassus directed their activities towards raising money for a scholarship which was presented to a senior member. Members held a popcorn ball sale to raise the necessary funds for the award.

Members also held an invitation banquet during the spring. Individual members received pins and letters for the number of semesters that they had been in the honor society.

This year, the sponsor for Parnassus was Miss Snider, who put in many extra hours viewing the Parnassus applications and making the many necessary arrangements for the bi-weekly meetings.

Pep Club Instilled Spirit at North

Pep Club was the largest club on campus, with over one fifth of the student body as members.

This year, the club was very active and for the first time sponsored a float for homecoming, a yell contest, and demonstration Pep Rallies with the Cheers and Pep Band. Members sold derbys and megaphones, made spirit rousing posters, decorated the goal posts for the football games, and sponsored a car caravan to Camelback. Spirit reached an all time high thanks to Pep Club.

Mike Collin's 21 yard touchdown pass to Nick Velimirovich was North's only score of the game against Tucson. The Tucson Badgers, on the other hand Tucson chalked 40 points.

NORTH 33—CAMELBACK 20

This was probably the most exciting game of the season, with both teams alternating in the lead through most of the game. Dale Metz scored one of the touchdowns, and Mike Collins and Widney Everett each scored two.

NORTH 26—SOUTH 6

South got the first touchdown of the game, but that was all. The Mustangs scored four touchdowns and two extra points. Scores were; Dale Metz, Bill Bandhauer, Mike Collins, Ray Owsley, Nick Velimirovitch.

NORTH 26—MARYVALE 0

Touchdowns by Widney Everett and Mike Collins forced the Panthers to bow to the Mustangs in the seventh game of the season. Everett scored in the first quarter, Collins scored later.

North Wins Homecoming Over East

NORTH 24-7

Mustang Griders stomped East High 24-7 during the homecoming game to insure their record of never losing a homecoming game. Dale Metz scored the first T.D. of the game. The Longhorns scored in the second quarter and failed to score again. Three T.D.'s were made during the last half.

NORTH 26-CENTRAL 0

By defeating the Central Bobcats the Mustangs came out undefeated in league play this year. North's defense kept the Bobcats on their own side of the fifty yard line during most of the game.

NORTH 0-WEST 34

West Thunderbirds defeated North in the last game of the regular season. Because North had already clinched the B league title of the Phoenix conference and was slated to play Camel-back in less than a week the first string was not used.

Ray Owsly stretches and Dick Souder trails as the two North defenders push a Camelback halfback out of bounds inches from the goal.

North's powerful front line was responsible for gaping holes like this one for the Mustang ballcarriers to break through.

Ron Turner, one of North's top defensive backs, moved in to bring down this Camelback receiver in some exciting action from the second Camelback-North division playoff game at East High.

Bill Sayler bursts through the gaping hole set up for him by the tough Mustang offensive line in action from the first North-Camelback game that ended in a 33-20 North victory.

CROSS COUNTRY

North	30	South	29
North	41	Alhambra	20
North	36	Carl Hayden	30
North	34	Maryvale	25
North	32	East	27

North's cross country team struggled through a 3-5 record, but outstanding individual efforts were made. The varsity team was led by Pete Span, Mike Reynoso, and Norb Schneider, who placed high in every event. Lack of depth was apparent as the Mustangs dropped four of their meets by five points or less.

Camelback runner was second to Span.

Coach Looper started race.

Basketball

North Finished Third in Division "B"

North High's basketball season might be described as one of up's and downs. The team compiled a season record of 7-14, but that record wasn't indicative of the all-around ability of the team, as several of the losses were by close margins, and the wins could well have been North's.

The Mustang cagers started the season impressively with an overtime victory over Camelback, followed by a trouncing of Tucson Amphitheatre ... then the roof caved in. North was defeated in six straight contests, including two in the Christmas Tournament. The Mustangs took heart after beating Camelback again, and trouncing Carl Hayden, but ran into trouble against the state's third-ranked team, Phoenix Union. Most of the season was up hill for North's Mustangs.

J. V. Struggle Through Losing Season

Junior Varsity Basketball players started the season off right by winning their first game. After beating Camelback by a score of 51-46, they lost Amphitheater by 5 points and came back to trounce Alhambra by 10 points. The rest of the season was rather rough for the Mustangs who didn't have another victory until the end of the season, when they defeated East.

Wrestling

Grapplers Look to Future

Members of the Varsity Wrestling team were: Steve Pinette (95), Oly Cowles (103), Larry Udall (112), Bob Laurie (120), Jim Boat (127), Frank Svoboda (133), Cleve Kale (138), George Laurie (145), John Svoboda (154), Mike Mangoso (165), Paul Buske (180), Dan Abrams (Hvt.).

The Wrestling Team, as a unit, was not particularly outstanding this year, but certain individuals excelled and brought honors to themselves and to North. In the state meet, North outscored 9 of the teams that beat the Mustangs during the season.

Senior John Svoboda won fourteen matches and went into the Divisional Tournament undefeated. John went to the Divisionals, won all four of his matches, and came out a champion. Seniors Paul Buske and Dan Abrams each took a fourth place in their respective weight classes. All three of these Grapplers went to the State Tournament where they made a very good showing; Paul Buske and John Svoboda each placing fourth.

The main, if not the only reason for the Matmen's rather poor season, was a lack of experience. Most of the regular Varsity and Junior Varsity Wrestlers were Sophomores.

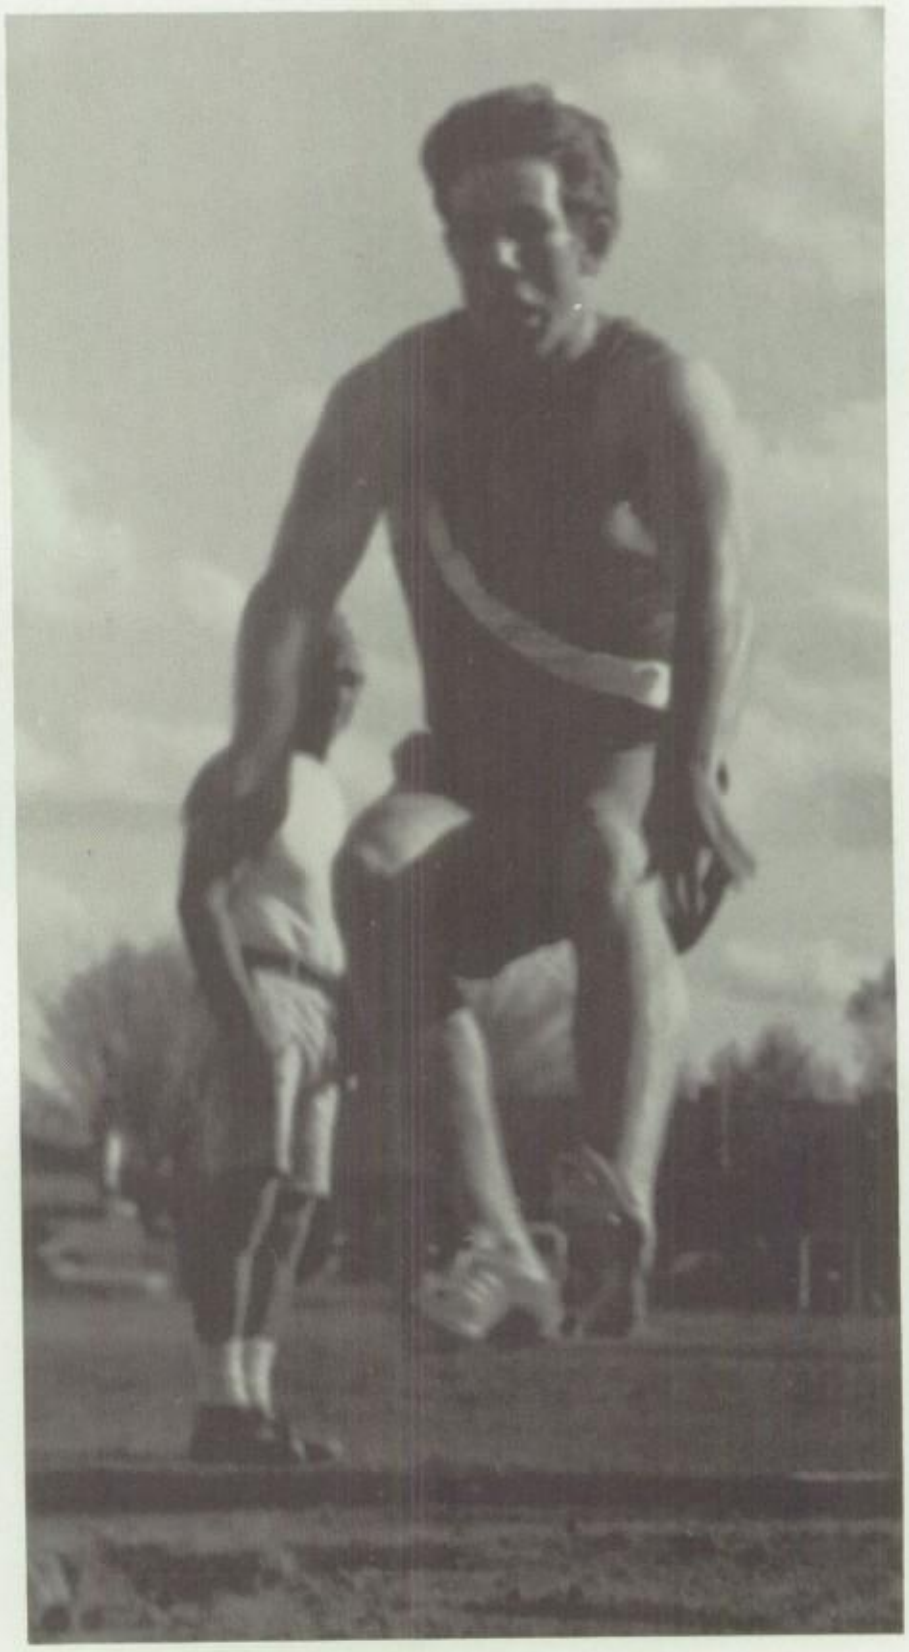
Track

The runners break with the sound of the gun in the rugged 880-yard run at the North-Washington track meet in Mustang stadium in early March.

Coach Tom Casteel gives instructions to anxious runners moments before the beginning of a relay.



This Washington High broad-jumper is a study in concentration moments before landing.

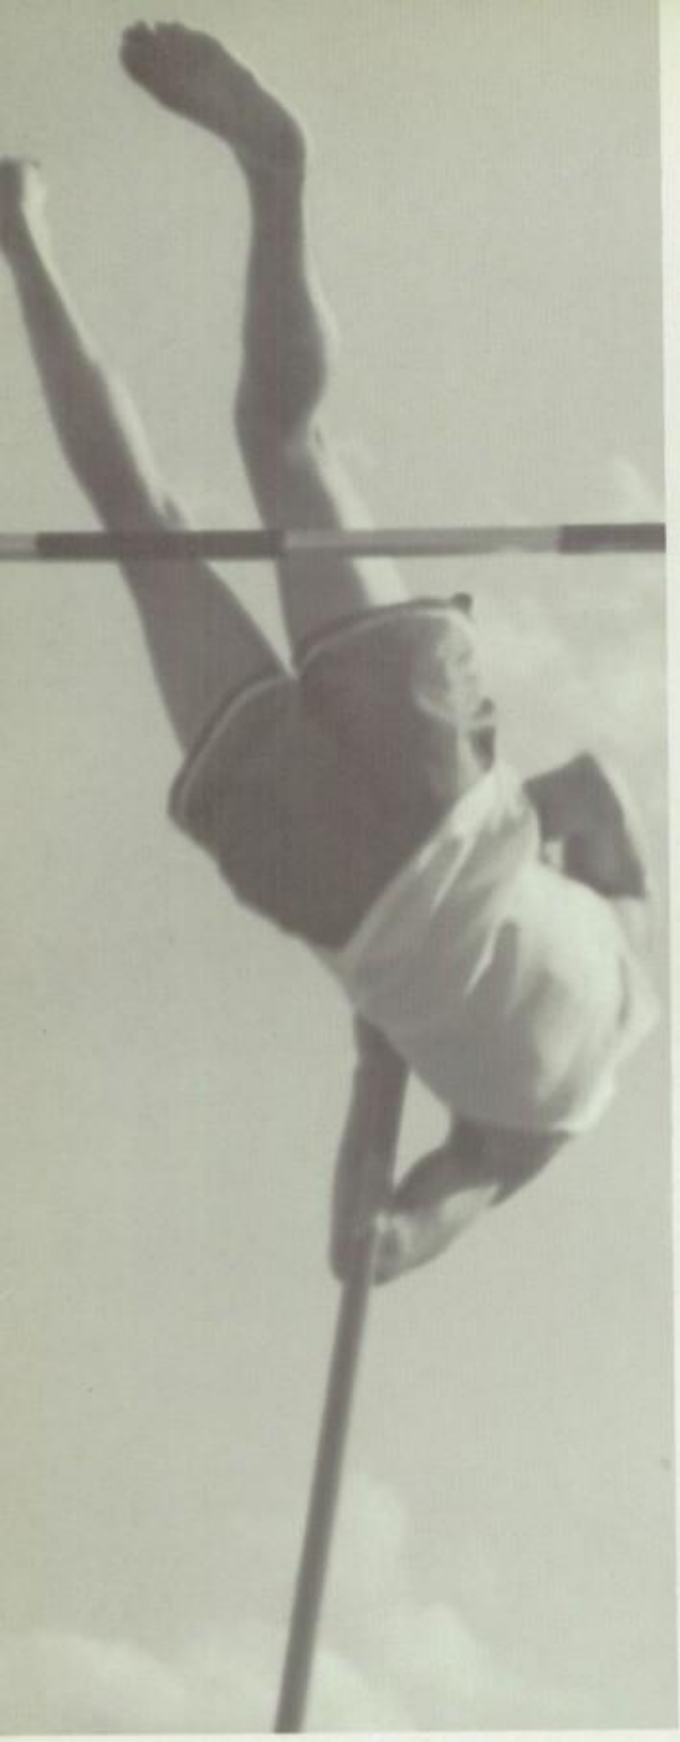
Track Sketches

Tom Large is shown going through the final stretch before clearing the high hurdle. The 120 yard high hurdle event is both grueling and exciting.

Dennis Medlin was anchor man on North's 880-yard relay team.

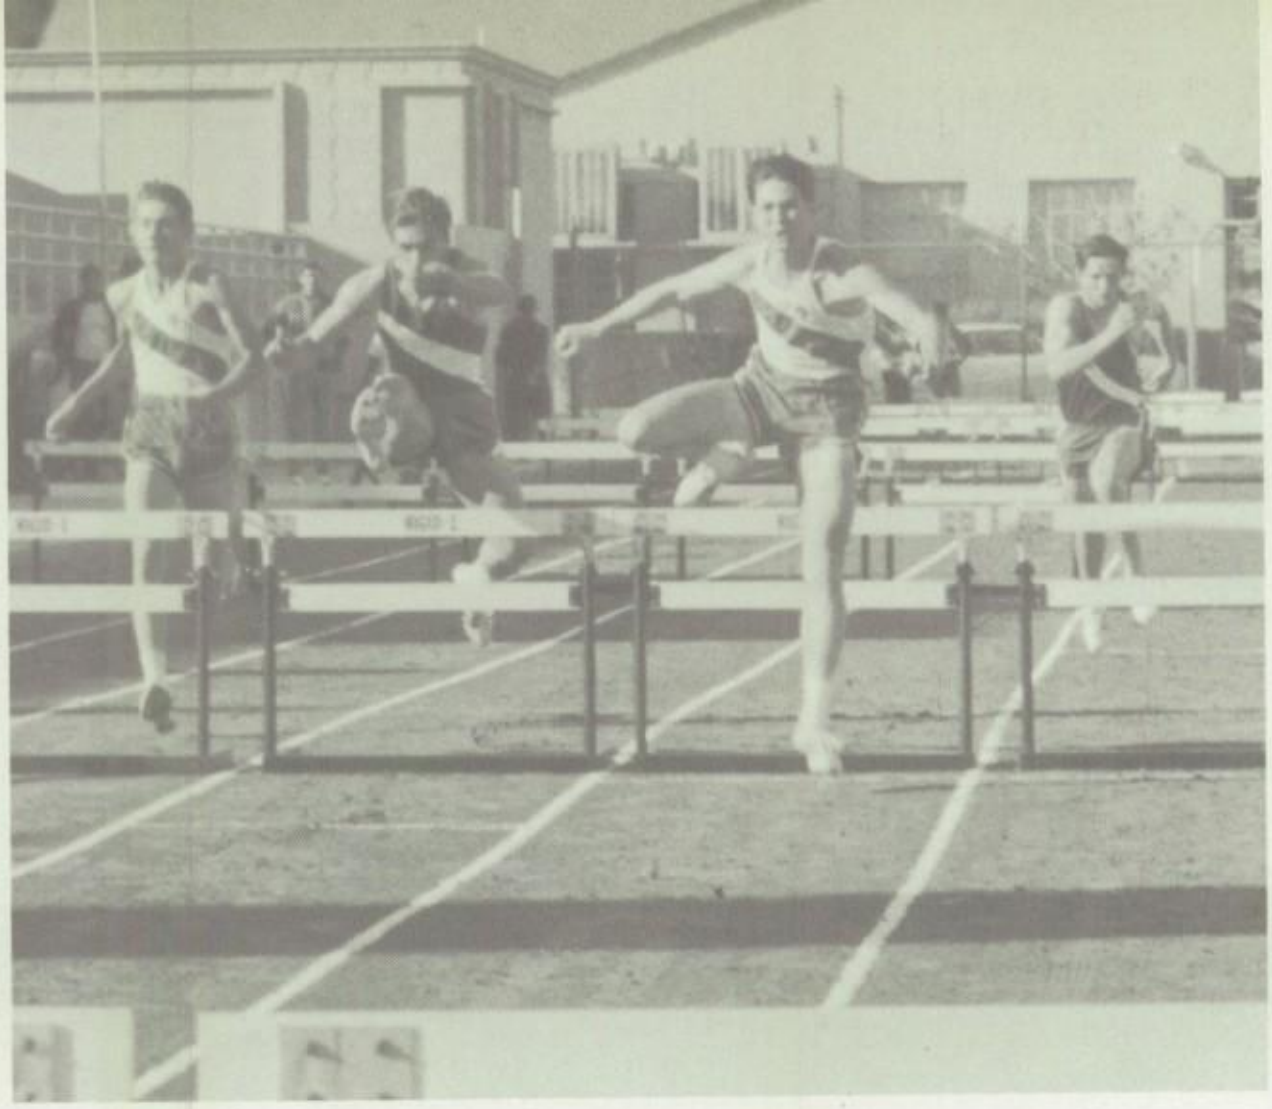
Fred Holmes practices clearing the hurdle in anticipation of the 180-yard low hurdles event.

LEFT: Cleve Kale was North's top pole-vaulter, clearing 11 feet as a sophomore, and achieving even greater "heights" last spring.



Cleve Kale clears the bar in a meet against Washington.

Track means many things to many people. For some, it's the beauty of seeing a vaulter caught in the air. Others like the poise and form of a hurdler, and still others watch in admiration as stamina pays off in the grueling 440, 880 or mile events. North's first track meet of the year, a dual with Washington at North, gave an idea of what North fans could expect.



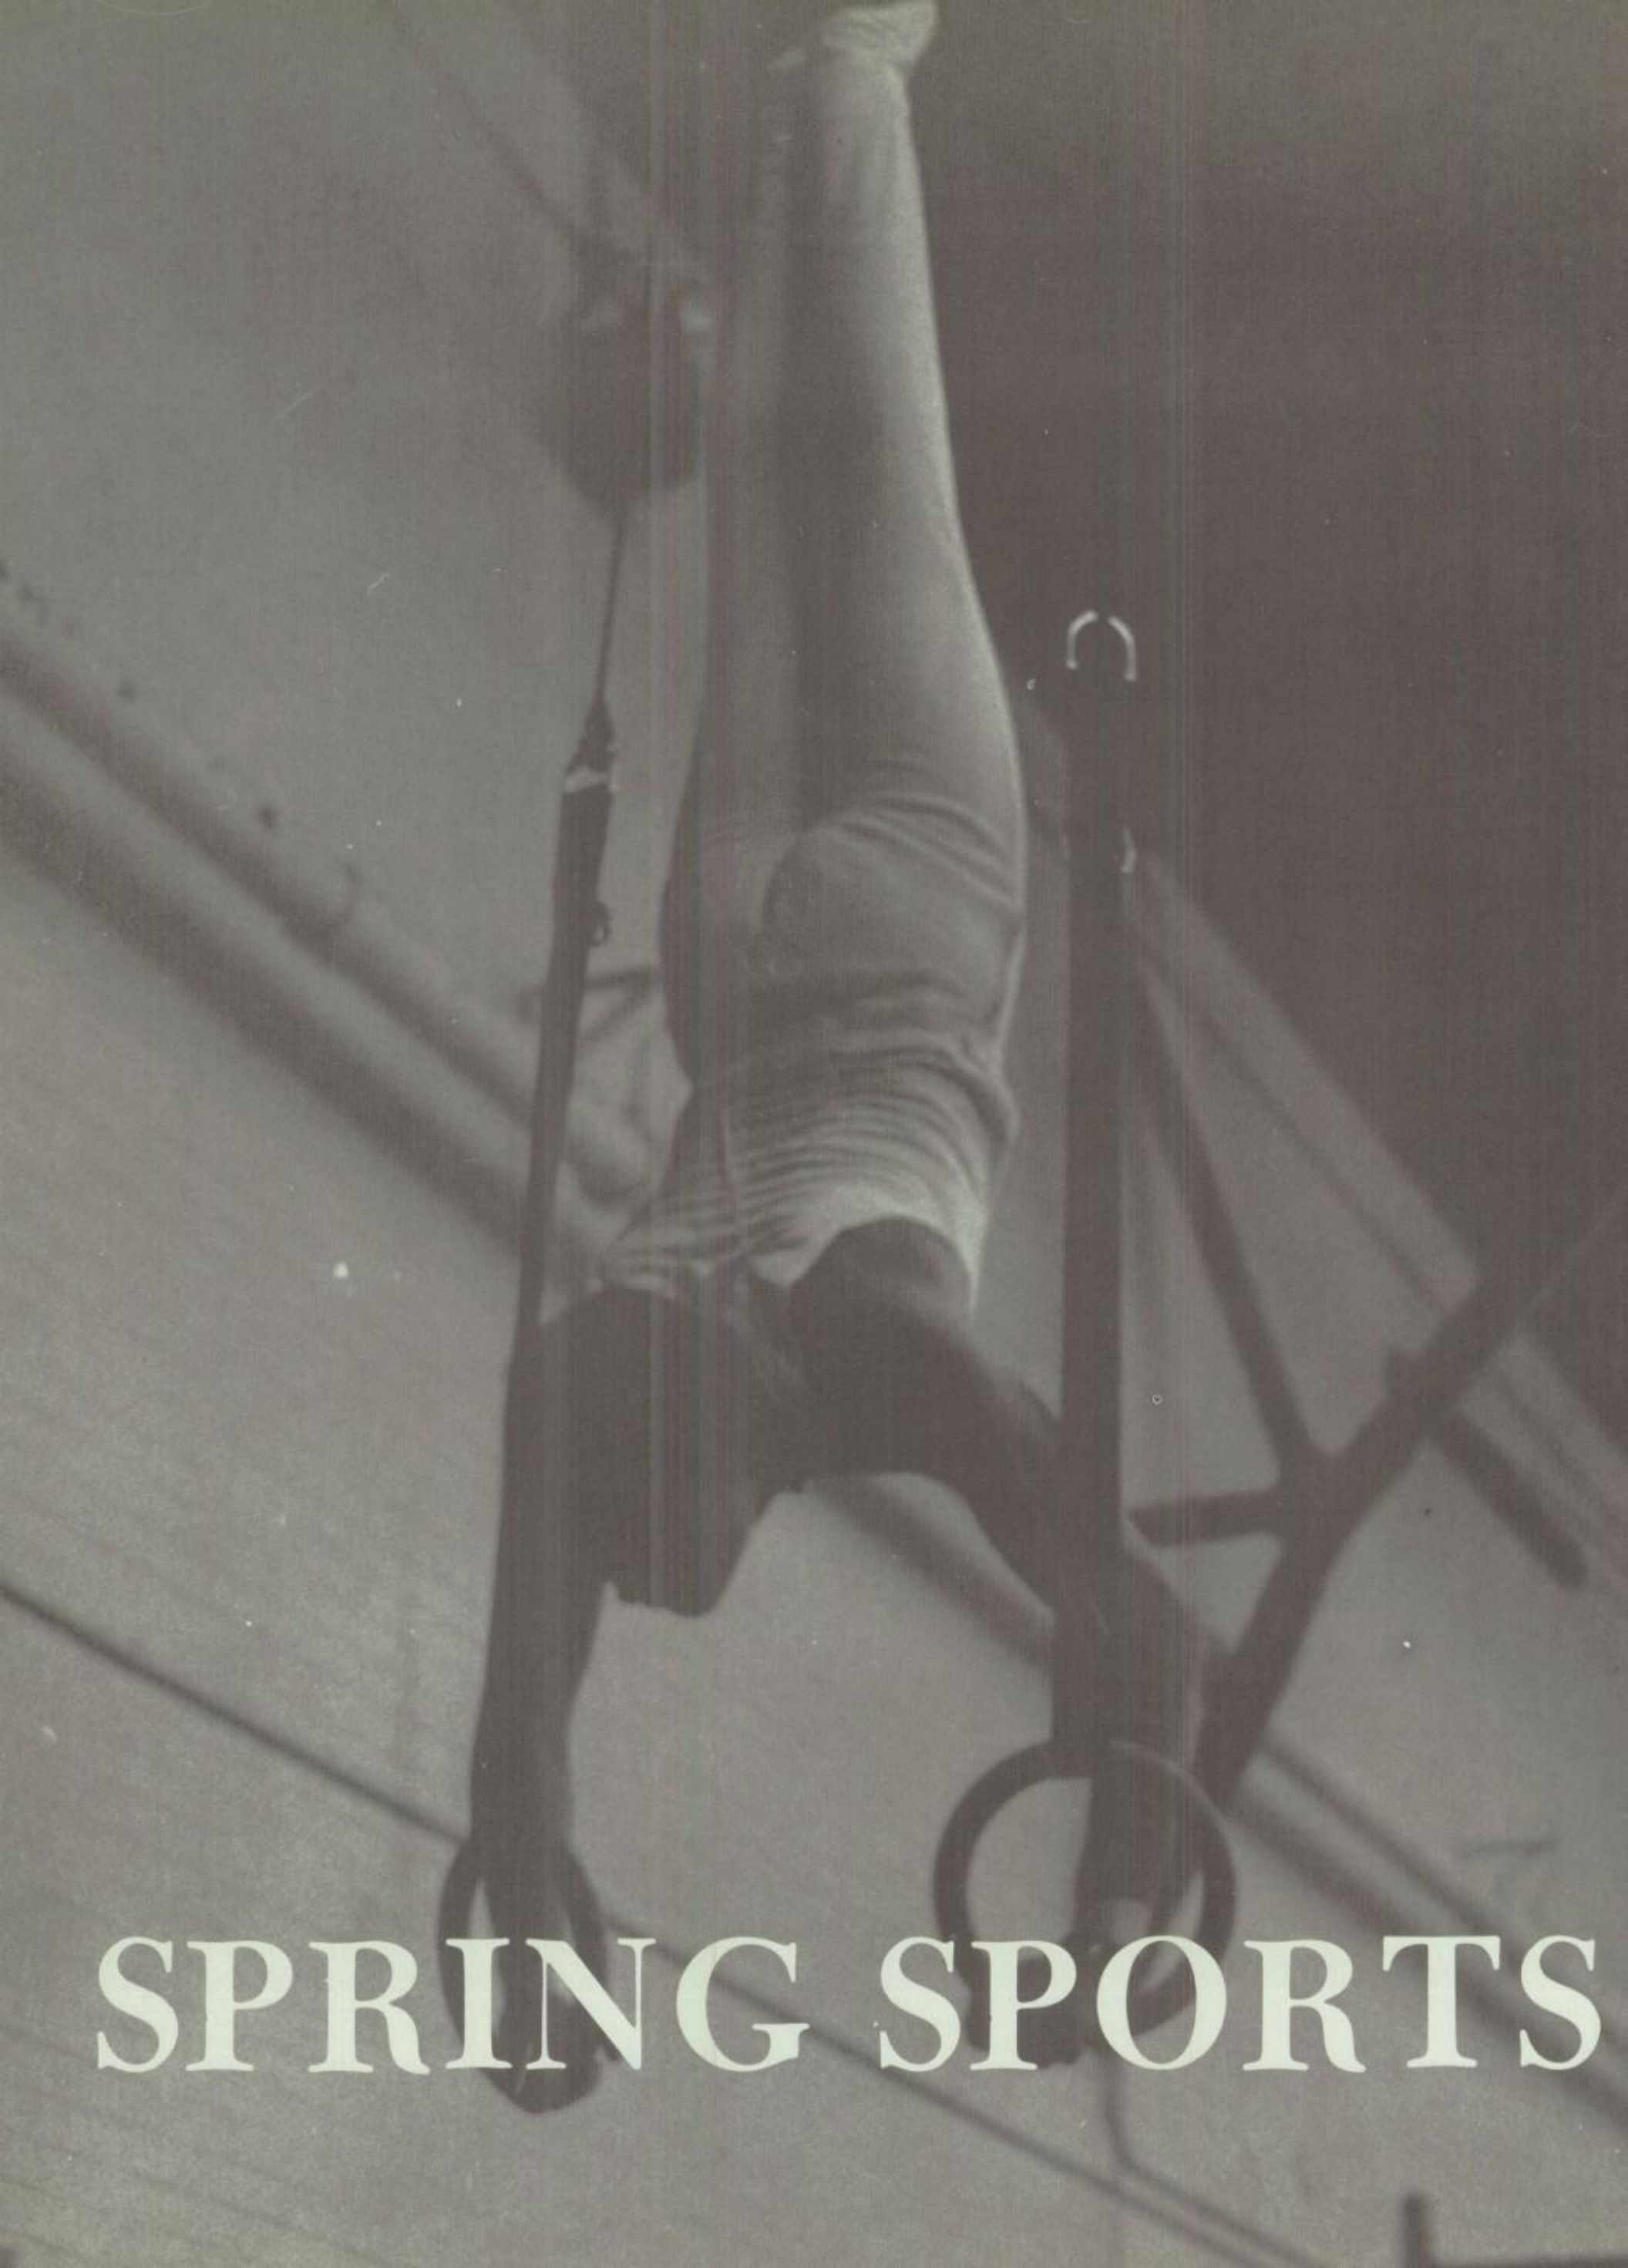
The HOOFBEATS photographer catches a Mustang hurdler leading the pack in the 180-yard low hurdles race.

RIGHT: Two of North's distance runners make their turn in the mile run.

Track—Hours of Practice, Then More Hours . . .

A typical track practice might encompass the activities pictured on this page . . . top right shows someone going up, top left shows the coming down process. There's the momentary hanging in space before landing in the pit, bottom right, then, of course, there's the continual jogging that makes track synonymous with RUN!

A typical track practice includes many more events—shotput, discus, hurdling, etc., which are all important, but it can be agreed upon that when a meet rolls around, the practice seems mighty worthwhile.



SPRING SPORTS

Sophomore Gymnasts Show Promise

North High's gymnastic performers met some top teams in spring meets, including Arcadia, Maryvale, and Scotsdale, gathering the experience necessary to provide talent for next year, and years to follow. This statement doesn't sound that too optimistic because the core of this year's team were sophomores.

Consistent performers for the Mustangs were Tim Finn on the Trampoline, Mike Warren on the rings, and Carl Mriss on the high bar.

Coach Jerry Hermanek placed a lot of responsibility on his sophomore performers, and it is hoped that this trust will pay off in ample dividends in the future.

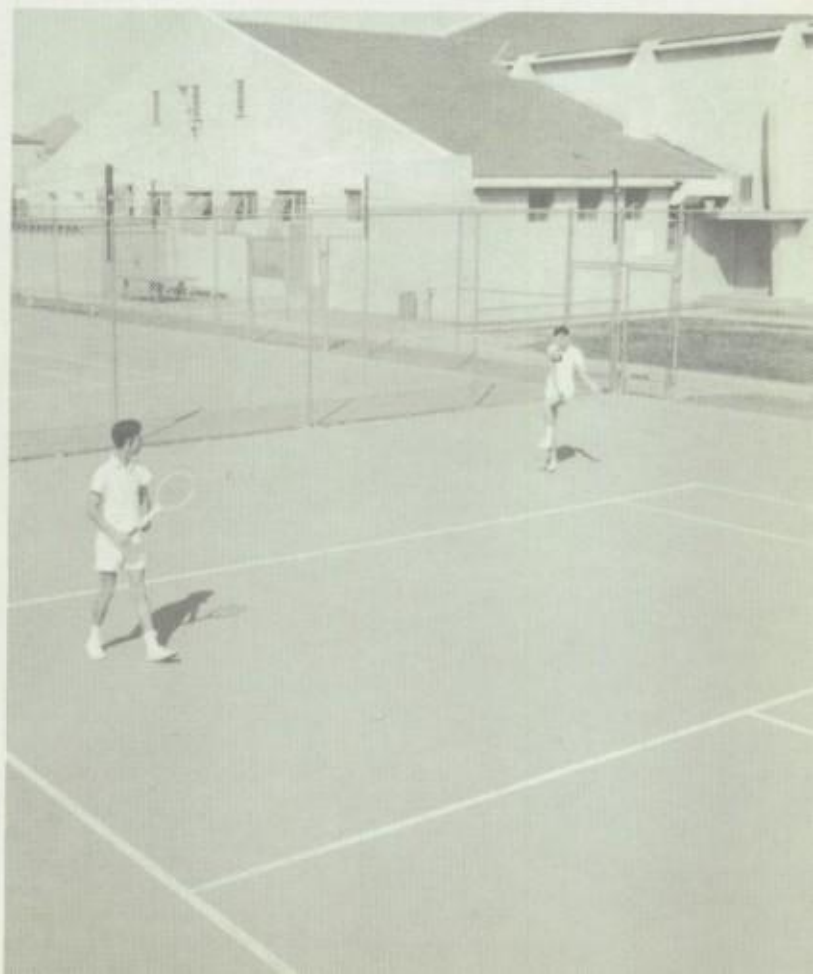
Mustang Netters Beat Longhorns, 6-1

At HOOFBEATS presstime, the North High Tennis team had a season record of three wins and two losses. Among the early season wins was a 6-1 trouncing of East High's Longhorns. The only two losses were to Camelback and Central.

Coach Hardy couldn't expect a tremendous undefeated season like the '67 campaign, when the Mustang tennismen went unbeaten with a perfect 13-0 record, but he anticipated a better than average season for '68.

BOTTOM: Dave Benish and Danny Deal prove that teamwork counts.

BOTTOM: Doug Wright and Mike Sales combine for some doubles action.



Golfers Practice Long Hours

Craig Asbury practiced his swing on campus.

This year the North High golf team looked for a successful season and got it. The team, although little known at North, practiced hard and put in long hours. The team practiced at Papago Park and had their home meets at the Phoenix Country Club. This years' outstanding players were Craig Asbury, John Chotras, Dick Krahl, Bucky Lee and Bill Foust.

At yearbook presstime, things looked pretty bright for the North High baseballers. Returning from the '67 campaign were such players as Mike Collins at third base, LeRoy Cookus at Catcher; Kurt Johnson, Shortstop; and pitcher Bob Porter. These players formed a veteran nucleus for Coach Tom Cooper.

Promising junior prospects were Don Duncan, first; Danny Cole, pitcher; and Ray Owsley, outfield.

Following an opening game 5-3 loss to Carl Hayden, the biggest threats were expected to be Camelback, and Maryvale.

North Diamondmen Opened with Falcons

Baseball is a game of many facets, such as alertly guarding a base, at right; cracking out a solid hit, above; and patiently awaiting the next pitch, whether it be a 3-2 situation, or an expected fastball in practice, bottom.

Seniors Reach End of Career at North

Seniors have reached the cummulation of their high school careers and can now venture forth in search of even higher achievement. Their years at North have prepared them for any avenue of enterprise, but, no matter what the field of endeavor, the outlook appears bright--bright because of their commendable record of devotion to school activities. The point system attest most dynamically to the class of '68 in such events as rodeo, can drive, sports, and Homecoming. This same spirited devotion was also ovserved at such memorable senior functions as the Senior Movie and Skit, the Senior Banquet, and the Walk—off Assembly, Ditch Day, the all night Party, the Junior and Senior Prom, Baccalaureate, and Commencement.

69'ers Dominated

Teams, Activities

The Junior Class has put forth one of the best efforts of class spirit North Phoenix has ever experienced. The Class of 69, led by Pat Blair; president; Jack Nutter, vice-president; Dave Fanning, Treasurer; Gracie Switzer, secretary; and Phil Konomos and Patty Page, honor court judges, started their year off at North Phoenix by dominating all the varsity football, basketball, and track teams. Cheering our teams on to victory were the predominatly Junior Pom and Cheers.

The Juniors sponsored many different and spirit building activities. Among these activities were two sport dances, a candy sale, plus a second place Homecoming float. The Juniors also held all the leading roles in the first semester play—Look Back In Anger. The biggest activity was sponsoring of the Junior-Senior Prom.

The past year has been an exciting experiment. For the first time, the HOOFBEATS has been produced on a 9 X 12, 2-column basis. Because of the scarcity of returning staff members and because of the consequent burden on those editors with experience, I would like to thank those responsible for the many hundreds of hours that went into the production of this 1968 HOOFBEATS.

First of all, the editors: Ron Wade and Jack Torres, Jessie Catlin, Pat Lay, Patty McGuire, Jack Nutter, Jim Bingham and Faith Meldrum. Special thanks go to Jenni Ullman for the adaptation of the cover design. Next, I would like to thank the rest of the staff members for their participation and for their patience with the editors.

Special thanks go to Mr. Pfau, our advisor, for his patience with the staff and his true dedication to the production of a good yearbook. We are grateful to Mr. Gantt and Mrs. Leedham of the bookstore for their help during the sale of yearbooks.

In conclusion, I would like to say that this year as editor has been an experience which I am not likely to forget. It has brought me closer to the members of both the administration and the faculty. The patience and understanding which they demonstrated toward both myself and the yearbook should not go without recognition, and I hereby thank them.

Perhaps the greatest thanks go to Mr. Williams, whose excellent photography was responsible for the sports and activities sections.

I would also like to thank Chuck Bursell and the American Yearbook Company for their excellent jobs in the production of the yearbook, and for the excellent job done on the cover. Special Thanks go to Fred Marvel for the classes section pictures.

I would like to thank each one of you for purchasing this 1968 HOOFBEATS because without your support there would be no yearbook. I sincerely hope that you enjoy it.

Thank you,
Abbie Carson
Editor-in-Chief
